If you prefer to mail your Common Application and Supplement, please staple a check for $60 (payable to William & Mary) to the bottom of this form.

Optional Essay or Submission:

Beyond your impressive academic credentials and extracurricular accomplishments, what else makes you unique and colorful? Provide us with some limited measure of your personality.

We know that nobody fits neatly into 500 words or less, but you can provide us with some suggestion of the type of person you are. Anything goes! Inspire us, impress us or just make us laugh. Think of this optional opportunity as show and tell by proxy and with an attitude.

For additional context, check out the William & Mary admission office's video message about the writing that's part of your application and the people who will be reading it at www.wm.edu/admissionvideo.

Please refer to the Transfer Admission Process at www.wm.edu/admission/transfer for additional information about transfer application requirements, especially the submission requirements for mid-semester grades and the College Official's Report. For your personal statement, please discuss why you wish to transfer to William & Mary. This is the only required essay for transfer applicants. If you have withdrawn from any classes, received any incompletes or received any final grades lower than a C, please include an explanation.

If you are interested in the Flexible Degree Track program, please submit a written explanation of why full-time status is not feasible. Details about the Flexible Degree Track program may be found in the Undergraduate Course Catalog, available online at www.wm.edu/registrar/catalog.php.

I expect to enter William & Mary as a First-Year Sophomore Junior Senior
