Application for Special Research Funding

Department of Anthropology faculty and graduate students are invited to apply for travel and research funding. Funding will be limited to one request of up to $500.00 per applicant per fiscal year (July 1-June 30). Receipts for all funding awarded must be submitted with proper reimbursement forms by June 15. Applications will be funded on a competitive basis. They are reviewed twice each year:

Fall deadline: October 15
Spring deadline: March 15

Priorities for funding include but are not limited to:
1) Funding to assist graduate students to engage in full-time research related to their thesis or dissertation.
2) Funding to assist faculty to initiate and maintain research projects.
3) Funding for the purchase of minor equipment and research or teaching materials (e.g., videos, software, etc.)
4) Funding for graduate students who are no longer eligible to receive Conference Travel Funds to allow them to present the results of their research at conferences.
5) Funding for graduate student language training.

Completed funding applications should be returned to the Anthropology Office. Graduate applications must be approved by the student's Faculty Advisor, and faculty applications must be signed by the Department Chair.
