

College of William and Mary
Department of English
Application for Independent Study (ENG 480)

Have you ever taken an Independent Study before at William & Mary? Yes No

If Yes, please list topics and dates: _____

Student _____ ID# _____
(Please Print)

Email _____ Local Phone _____

Independent Study Advisor _____
(Please Print)

Semester/year _____

Choose One:

3 credit independent study (at least 20 pages of writing) _____

2 credit independent study (at least 14 pages of writing) _____

1 credit independent study (at least 7 pages of writing) _____

Your application should include (please check off the following):*

_____ 2-3 page proposal

_____ A bibliography

_____ General outline of readings and meeting times

_____ Banner Transcript (you must have fulfilled at least half of your major requirements and must have a 3.0 GPA in the major)

*The application will not be accepted if all of the above items are not attached.

Proposal Instructions: In a well-written, concise (2-3 page) proposal state why you want to undertake this project. You should include what the project will produce (e.g. 3 short stories @ 10 pages each; a 20 page research paper, an annotated bibliography, etc.) Attach a bibliography and a general outline of the readings and meeting times. Proposals must be read and approved by the Independent Study Advisor before submitting applications to the Undergraduate Program Committee. This application form should be attached to your proposal. Submit all required items to the English Department, Tucker 102 by the due date below.

Application Deadlines: Applications are due the last week of classes BEFORE the semester in which you propose to do your Independent Study. They will be accepted no later than the first day of classes the semester in which you propose to do your Independent Study. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Student's Signature _____ Date _____

Advisor's Signature _____ Date _____