SUBJECT: Thomas Jefferson Awards

The Thomas Jefferson Awards Committee for the 2010-2011 academic year will be meeting later this semester to choose this year’s recipients of the annual Jefferson Award and the Jefferson Teaching Award.

The Jefferson Award was established to recognize a faculty member who has demonstrated a deep devotion and outstanding service to the College and whose life, character and influence on the College exemplify the principles of Thomas Jefferson.

The Jefferson Teaching Award was established to recognize a faculty member with less than 10 years full-time service whose personal character, concern as a teacher, and influence has demonstrated the stimulation and inspiration of learning for the betterment of the individual and society as exemplified in the life of Thomas Jefferson.

Nominations with supporting materials should be sent to me no later than Wednesday, December 1, 2010. Supporting materials should include the letter of nomination, the nominee’s C.V., and no more than five letters from faculty colleagues. In the case of the Jefferson Teaching Award, no more than five letters from students and/or alumni should be included.
