Welcome to new and returning students!

We're delighted to welcome new and returning students to our community. This email is the first of an important weekly newsletter from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research called DID YOU KNOW THAT? [DYKT]?. You will receive it every Monday morning throughout the academic year. As our continuing students know, DYKT? is a valuable source for timely information of interest to Arts & Sciences graduate students, such as application information for grants and awards, news & events, and academic deadlines and changes. We try to keep the messages brief and we hope that you will get into the habit of reading them regularly as you plan your week. We are very interested in hearing from you. If you have questions that you think other graduate students share – please ask us. If you know of events that you think will interest your colleagues throughout the university – please tell us. We cannot promise to list all of them, but we will try.

We also publish funding opportunities for students in the various disciplines. You can find a more comprehensive listing of funding opportunities on the Graduate Studies and Research website at http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/fundingsources/index.php. Also check out the Office of Graduate Studies and Research website at http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/index.php for other student resource information such as important forms, information about COLL courses, the Graduate Center, and the A&S Graduate Ombuds Office.

Again, welcome!

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING

A&S GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support [maximum of $300] from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities. Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority. In 2012-13, 39 students received A&S Graduate Student Research Grants with an average award of approximately $299.
2013 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in February and one in April). Applications for Fall 2013 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on October 4, 2013, and will cover expenses incurred September 1 through December 31, 2013. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student’s faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application form can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the Graduate Student Association Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

W&M GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM COMMITTEE LEADERSHIP POSITIONS AVAILABLE

The Arts and Sciences Graduate Research Symposium (A&S GRS) is the only broadly themed graduate student focused conference designed to bring together graduate students from differing areas of study and from all stages of the degree process. The first GRS committee meeting will be held Wednesday, September 4, at 5:00 pm in the Stetson House. Pizza will be served. The Symposium Committee is composed of an inspired group of graduate students dedicated to developing strategies for organizing a professional interdisciplinary conference. With 150 presenters from the College of William and Mary and regional universities, the A&S GRS gives you, as a graduate student, the opportunity to step up and take on volunteer positions as leaders and integral members on the symposium planning team. This is an excellent opportunity to gain expertise as a valuable addition to your resumé or future letters of recommendation. Please send an e-mail to Chasity Roberts cyroberts@wm.edu if you are interested and plan on attending the meeting. Please bring your ideas and suggestions. If you cannot attend but would like more information, contact cyroberts@wm.edu.

Symposium Committee Leadership Positions:

Humanities and Sciences Chair: Will jointly ensure the successful execution of the annual Graduate Research Symposium. Each Chair is responsible for the creation of event guidelines and materials that are congruent with the practices of their respective disciplines. Their duties will include, but are not limited to: appointing Symposium Committee members, presiding over Symposium Committee meetings, initiating a Call for Abstracts, selection of participants, communication with accepted and declined applicants, creation of event program, establishing evaluation criteria, and awards.

Computer/Technical Manager: Assists the Humanities and Sciences Chairs in the coordination, organization, and implementation of the Graduate Research Symposium, including room setup and presentations (a/v).

Volunteer Coordinator: Will plan, organize, and manage the event volunteers. Duties include assigning volunteer tasks, creating volunteer schedules, and overseeing registration procedures during the event.

Internal Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the event to the College of William and Mary faculty, staff, and students. Duties include the design and delivery of brochures and flyers, frequent e-mail communication, and selected invitations to guest participants (e.g., President, Provost, Deans, and Departmental Directors of Graduate Studies).

External Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the Symposium to the Williamsburg community and regional universities. Duties include but are not limited to the design of advertising copy, press releases, and correspondence with departmental chairs at regional universities.

Web Master: Will create and maintain the Graduate Research Symposium web site, including the development of web-based forms and the maintenance of a web database.

Publications Specialist: Will design and print the Graduate Research Symposium Program.
Important information on W&M health care and insurance eligibility for 2013-2014

Students who want to be eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan and for use of the Student Health Center in 2013-2014 should be sure to understand this information and review the information on the Student Health Center website. The 2013-2014 annual student premium is $1,541 ($709 for the fall coverage period and $832 for the Spring/Summer coverage period. Students who want more information can contact the Student Insurance Coordinator (trsike@wm.edu) after reviewing the information provided at http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/plan/index.php

Students admitted Fall 2006 or after and who register full-time or with Research Graduate status, and all F-1 and J-1 international students, will be enrolled in the College-endorsed Student Insurance Plan and the cost will be billed to their student account in two installments (fall and spring semester) UNLESS proof of other adequate health insurance coverage is provided by submitting a waiver request by the posted deadline each academic year and the waiver request is approved. Waiver requests submitted after the deadline will be considered at the discretion of the College. The waiver request is available at https://studentcenter.uhcsr.com/wm. For more information review the Insurance page of the Student Health Center website (http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/waiverinfo/index.php). This requirement also applies to students who receive a W&M degree and then continue in a different W&M degree program (i.e., Bachelor’s to Master’s or Master’s to PhD).

STUDENTS WHO WILL BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS

1. If you don’t submit a waiver request by the deadline, you will have the College’s Insurance Policy billed to your student account in two installments (fall and spring semester). You MUST be enrolled at the College with either full-time or Graduate Research statuses BOTH semesters (Fall 2013 & Spring 2014) to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014). There is no option to change or convert your coverage later, so if you think there is a chance you may not be enrolled with full-time or Graduate Research status for the Spring 2014, read the appropriate section below.

2. Full-time or Research Graduate students who are enrolled in either the Annual, Annual in Installments or Spring/Summer coverage will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Spring 2014 semester even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered during the summer.

STUDENTS WHO MAY NOT BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS

1. If you think you will become a part-time or continuous enrollment student in the Spring 2014 semester and you wish to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014), you MUST actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments) in the Fall 2013 semester. If you enroll in the Annual in Installments or you enroll in the Fall coverage only, you will NOT be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan in the Spring 2014 semester when you become a part-time or continuous enrollment student. There is no option to change or convert your coverage later so you should plan ahead.

2. If you must actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments), you may do so by completing the College Enrollment Request form at https://forms.wm.edu/9618, which authorizes W&M to process your annual enrollment and bill your student account accordingly. You MUST select the Annual coverage period only, not any other coverage period and you will be billed for the entire annual premium in the Fall 2013 semester.

3. If you choose the Annual coverage but you cannot afford to pay the entire premium in the Fall, you will have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments utilizing the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan. You will not have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments unless you utilize the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan, http://www.wm.edu/offices/financialoperations/sa/eservices/paymentplan/index.php.

4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students who enrolled in the Annual coverage in the Fall 2013 semester will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Spring 2014 semester and the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered for the summer.
Important information on W&M Student Health Center eligibility for 2013-2014

All full-time or Research Graduate students are eligible for services at the W&M Student Health Center (SHC). Services offered at the SHC include a variety of primary care medical services (including laboratory testing) and pharmacy services.

1. Full-time students are assessed a Student Health Center fee as part of their tuition and fees during the fall and spring semesters.
2. Research Graduate students will need to make arrangements for the payment of the Student Health Center fee before accessing services during the fall and spring semesters.
3. Full-time or Research Graduate statuses in the spring semester qualifies students for use of the Student Health Center in the summer, with payment of the summer Student Health Center fee, unless the student graduates in May.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students are not eligible for services at the Student Health Center.
5. Students who have the College’s Student Insurance Plan but who are no longer eligible to use the services of the Student Health Center due to a change in student status (part-time, continuous enrollment or graduation), may still use the pharmacy services but may not use the medical services at the SHC.

NEWS & INFORMATION

TIME TO UPDATE YOUR ADDRESS. If you have not updated your mailing address and phone number and also provided a local address and phone number if you do not live in campus housing for the 2013-2014 academic year, please do so immediately. Please login to “myWM”, select the “Banner Self Service” Tab, select “Personal Information” and then select “Update Address(es) and Phone(s)”. This requirement is part of the code of student conduct, and failure to keep your information current can be considered a violation of the code. GRADUATE ARTS AND SCIENCES 2013-2014 PROGRAM CATALOG. The 2013-2014 catalog can be found online at the following site: http://catalog.wm.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=877. This is an invaluable resource to students. The catalog can only be found online. A grant from the W&M Committee on Sustainability made the online catalog project possible. Thanks to this initiative, the College no longer prints catalogs, and we are thereby saving 750,000 sheets of paper, plus the energy to produce and transport catalogs each year.

STUDENT HANDBOOK - AVAILABLE ONLY ONLINE. All students at William and Mary are bound by the regulations noted within the Student Handbook. The College reserves the right to make changes in the procedures and regulations contained within the Handbook at any time. The Handbook contains important information about the College’s expectations regarding student conduct, student rights and responsibilities, and relevant processes and procedures to address alleged misconduct. The Honor Code and its procedures are also included in the Handbook.

2012-13 A&S DISTINGUISHED THESIS AND DISTINGUISHED DISSERTATION AWARDEES. Five 2012-13 W&M graduates received A&S Graduate Studies Advisory Board Distinguished Master’s Thesis and Distinguished Dissertation Awards which recognize exemplary achievement in A&S graduate student research: Malcolm B. Gethers (PhD, Computer Science), Nancy A. Hillman (PhD, History), Laura E. Masur (MA, Anthropology), and Kaylan M. Stevenson (MA, History). Nominations are submitted by the students’ faculty advisors in April, and an A&S faculty panel ranks the nominations. The Arts & Sciences Graduate Studies Advisory Board, formed in 2004, is a select group of educational, business, and community leaders whose mission is to enhance the quality of graduate education in Arts & Sciences at W&M.

2012-13 A&S GRADUATE STUDENT S. LAURIE SANDERSON AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE MENTORING. Four W&M graduate students were honored with A&S Graduate Studies Advisory Board (GSAB) Awards for Excellence in Undergraduate Mentoring which recognize outstanding undergraduate mentoring in scholarship and research outside of classroom teaching: William Czaplyski (Chemistry), Jessica Herlic (Anthropology), Valerie Tripp (Chemistry), and Kristin Zajo (Psychology). Nominations are submitted in January and consist of supporting statements from current or past W&M undergraduate students and faculty members. A panel of A&S faculty and GSAB members ranks the nominations.

GRADUATE CENTER PROGRAMS. The Graduate Center, located in the Stetson House at 232 Jamestown Road, offers courses and workshops intended to complement your academic curriculum. Meeting times are chosen to avoid conflicts with your primary academic commitments.

COLL 501 (Section 1): English Conversation & Pronunciation – 13371; Begins September 10th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Cortney Cain
Tuesdays, Millington 123, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

In this course students who are non-native English speakers will learn more about the rhythm, stress, and intonation patterns of spoken English, improve their ability to communicate with others, and practice distinguishing sounds that are unique to the English language. Recorded assignments and in-class discussions will allow students opportunities to practice their conversational skills and learn more about American culture.

COLL 503: Listening, Speaking and Pronunciation Skills – 16618; Begins September 12th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Thursdays, Blow 311, 5:00 – 6:50 p.m.

Listening and speaking are inextricably linked. Active listening is a key component to correcting pronunciation errors, and is essential for academic, professional, and personal success. This course is designed for nonnative English speakers who wish to develop their English proficiency. A variety of resources including film, CDs, and the Internet, expose students to different American accents and speech patterns. Recorded assignments provide opportunities for self-assessment and instructor feedback.

COLL 505 (Section 1): Oral Presentation Skills – 13403; Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Wednesdays, Blow 333, 5:00 – 6:50 p.m.

COLL 505 (Section 2): Oral Presentation Skills – 19210; Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Wednesdays, Blow 333, 7:00 – 8:50 p.m.

This course is for domestic and international students who want to refine their oral communication skills and learn more about presentation norms. Students will participate in various kinds of oral communication activities, including presenting speeches given for different purposes, critiquing speech content, organization, and delivery, and presenting a paper following specific guidelines set forth by a conference or association.

COLL 525: Writing for Publication – 19211
Begins September 12th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Barbara Monteith
Thursdays, Blow 331, 5:00 – 6:20 p.m.

A course for domestic and international students who have mastered the basics of academic writing and are preparing articles for publication in the sciences and humanities. Students will examine articles from their field to learn more about field-specific styles. In addition, they will review and revise their own writing and participate in peer reviews. Participants in this course should currently be involved in doing research.

COLL 530: Thesis/Dissertation Writing - 18501
Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Kristin Maurice
Wednesdays, 11:00am-12:20pm, Millington 123

This is a course for domestic and international students who are actively writing their theses/dissertations, including students who are writing articles for publication as components of their theses/dissertations. In collaboration with their academic advisor and in consultation with the instructor, students will organize and write individual chapters, simultaneously reviewing and revising their writing. Mini-workshops throughout the 10-week class will address topics that are relevant to the thesis/dissertation writer, such as organization, effective research strategies and citations, advisor/advisee interaction, and time management. Instructor permission required.
WILLIAMSBURG AREA TRANSPORT. For information about trains, planes, bikes, and bus travel in and around Williamsburg, go to the Williamsburg Area Transport web page at: http://www.jccegov.com/visitors/transportation.html You will find fare and schedule information as well as transportation for the disabled.

CAMPUS PARKING ADVISORY
Eligible students have from Aug 24-31, 2013 to purchase a decal without receiving a citation for no decal as long as you park in the W&M Hall lot only. New decals are required on all vehicles no later than September 1st. Parking rules will be enforced throughout campus. Once a decal is purchased it must be affixed to your vehicle and you may not park in Faculty/Staff Spaces. See http://www.wm.edu/parking for more information. Sign up today for the Parking Services & Transportation ListServ at https://lists.wm.edu/wws/info/parking Receive valuable notices concerning parking lot and street closures near real time.

ASSIGNED STUDY ROOMS – SWEM LIBRARY
There are a total of 16 assigned study rooms located on the second and third floors of Swem Library. Each study room has a desk with two shelves and a chair. Anyone wishing to be assigned a study must apply to Swem Administration by the end of the first full week of classes each semester. https://swem.wm.edu/policies/assigned-study These study rooms provide great opportunities for private, quiet study away from the hustle and bustle of other areas of Swem.

COUNSELING CENTER GROUP FOR GRADUATE AND NON-TRADITIONALLY AGED STUDENTS
Day/time to be determined, Blow Memorial Hall, Room 240. The W&M Counseling Center is offering a group specifically for Graduate and Non-traditionally aged students throughout the 2013-2014 school year. This type of group, Understanding Self and Others, is a mixed gender group that provides a safe environment to explore difficulties in interpersonal functioning. The group will allow you to identify with peers who share similar concerns, try out new behaviors and ways of interacting, develop skills to build and strengthen relationships, and increase your self-awareness through obtaining and providing genuine feedback. Group counseling is a dynamic and powerful therapeutic approach that facilitates changes in attitudes and behaviors. For many students, group therapy is the most effective and appropriate treatment option. A group counseling format provides a challenging and supportive environment in which members can explore and discuss their concerns with peers and professionals. It offers a broad range of perspectives and challenges its members to see things from multiple vantage points. Interested students can contact the Counseling Center and schedule an appointment to meet with a therapist and discuss their individual concerns and how the group may facilitate reaching their treatment goals (757) 221-3620.

UPCOMING EVENTS
OPENING CONVOCATION is Wednesday, August 28, 2013 at 5:15 PM in the Wren Courtyard. Opening Convocation, a long-held tradition at the College, celebrates the beginning of the academic year. “Opening Convocation is always a glorious occasion at William & Mary,” said President Taylor Reveley. “We gather with robust good cheer to kick off another school year and welcome the newest members of the Tribe to our community. It’s wonderful that this year’s Convocation Speaker will be Nancy Gunn, a William & Mary alumna (’88) who has enjoyed great success and acclaim as a television producer.” A native of Williamsburg, Gunn majored in theatre at William & Mary and earned her master’s degree from Tulane University. http://www.wm.edu/news/stories/2013/emmy-winning-tv-producer-nancy-gunn-88-to-speak-at-opening-convocation-123.php

GSA FALL MEETINGS
Fall meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of the month from September 4th through December 4th. All meetings will be start at 6:15pm in the Sadler Center's York Room. Pizza and refreshments will be provided. If you're interested in learning more about these exciting events, helping out with event planning, or learning about the GSA in general, please contact me at nasiddiqui@email.wm.edu or visit our webpage http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/home. I look forward to hearing from you. Let's make this the best year yet!
Nabeel Siddiqui,
GSA President

W&M GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM COMMITTEE

The Arts and Sciences Graduate Research Symposium (A&S GRS) is the only broadly themed graduate student focused conference designed to bring together graduate students from differing areas of study and from all stages of the degree process. The first GRS committee meeting will be held Wednesday, September 4, at 5:00 pm in the Stetson House. Pizza will be served. The Symposium Committee is composed of an inspired group of graduate students dedicated to developing strategies for organizing a professional interdisciplinary conference. With 150 presenters from the College of William and Mary faculty, and regional universities, the A&S GRS gives you, as a graduate student, the opportunity to step up and take on volunteer positions as leaders and integral members on the symposium planning team. This is an excellent opportunity to gain expertise as a valuable addition to your résumé or future letters of recommendation. Please bring your ideas and suggestions. Please send an e-mail to Chasity Roberts cyroberts@wm.edu if you are interested and plan on attending the meeting or would like more information.

Symposium Committee Leadership Positions:

Humanities and Sciences Chair: Will jointly ensure the successful execution of the annual Graduate Research Symposium. Each Chair is responsible for the creation of event guidelines and materials that are congruent with the practices of their respective disciplines. Their duties will include, but are not limited to: appointing Symposium Committee members, presiding over Symposium Committee meetings, initiating a Call for Abstracts, selection of participants, communication with accepted and declined applicants, creation of event program, establishing evaluation criteria, and awards.

Computer/Technical Manager: Assists the Humanities and Sciences Chairs in the coordination, organization, and implementation of the Graduate Research Symposium, including room setup and presentations (a/v).

Volunteer Coordinator: Will plan, organize, and manage the event volunteers. Duties include assigning volunteer tasks, creating volunteer schedules, and overseeing registration procedures during the event.

Internal Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the event to the College of William and Mary faculty, staff, and students. Duties include the design and delivery of brochures and flyers, frequent e-mail communication, and selected invitations to guest participants (e.g., President, Provost, Deans, and Departmental Directors of Graduate Studies).

External Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the Symposium to the Williamsburg community and regional universities. Duties include but are not limited to the design of advertising copy, press releases, and correspondence with departmental chairs at regional universities.

Web Master: Will create and maintain the Graduate Research Symposium web site, including the development of web-based forms and the maintenance of a web database.

Publications Specialist: Will design and print the Graduate Research Symposium Program.
NEWS & INFORMATION

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING

A&S GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support [maximum of $300] from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities. Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority. In 2012-13, 39 students received A&S Graduate Student Research Grants with an average award of approximately $299.

2013 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in February and one in April). Applications for Fall 2013 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on October 4, 2013, and will cover expenses incurred September 1 through December 31, 2013. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student’s faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application form can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the Graduate Student Association Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

GRADUATE CENTER PROGRAMS. The Graduate Center, located in the Stetson House at 232 Jamestown Road, offers courses and workshops intended to complement your academic curriculum. Meeting times are chosen to avoid conflicts with your primary academic commitments.

COLL 501 (Section 1): English Conversation & Pronunciation – 13371; Begins September 10th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Cortney Cain
Tuesdays, Millington 123, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

In this course students who are non-native English speakers will learn more about the rhythm, stress, and intonation patterns of spoken English, improve their ability to communicate with others, and practice distinguishing sounds that are unique to the English language. Recorded assignments and in-class discussions will allow students opportunities to practice their conversational skills and learn more about American culture.

COLL 503: Listening, Speaking and Pronunciation Skills – 16618; Begins September 12th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Thursdays, Blow 311, 5:00 – 6:50 p.m.

Listening and speaking are inextricably linked. Active listening is a key component to correcting pronunciation errors, and is essential for academic, professional, and personal success. This course is designed for nonnative English speakers who wish to develop their English proficiency. A variety of resources including film, CDs, and the Internet, expose students to different American accents and speech patterns. Recorded assignments provide opportunities for self-assessment and instructor feedback.

COLL 505 (Section 1): Oral Presentation Skills – 13403; Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Wednesdays, Blow 332, 5:00 – 6:50 p.m.

COLL 505 (Section 2): Oral Presentation Skills – 19210; Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Wednesdays, Blow 332, 7:00 – 8:50 p.m.

This course is for domestic and international students who want to refine their oral communication skills and learn more about presentation norms. Students will participate in various kinds of oral communication activities, including presenting speeches given for different purposes, critiquing speech content, organization, and delivery, and presenting a paper following specific guidelines set forth by a conference or association.

ARTS & SCIENCES

http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/
COLL 525: Writing for Publication – 19211
Begins September 12th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Barbara Monteith
Thursdays, Blow 331, 5:00 – 6:20 p.m.
A course for domestic and international students who have mastered the basics of academic writing and are preparing articles for publication in the sciences and humanities. Students will examine articles from their field to learn more about field-specific styles. In addition, they will review and revise their own writing and participate in peer reviews. Participants in this course should currently be involved in doing research.

COLL 530: Thesis/Dissertation Writing - 18501
Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Kristin Maurice
Wednesdays, 11:00am-12:20pm, Millington 123
This is a course for domestic and international students who are actively writing their theses/dissertations, including students who are writing articles for publication as components of their theses/dissertations. In collaboration with their academic advisor and in consultation with the instructor, students will organize and write individual chapters, simultaneously reviewing and revising their writing. Mini-workshops throughout the 10-week class will address topics that are relevant to the thesis/dissertation writer, such as organization, effective research strategies and citations, advisor/advisee interaction, and time management. Instructor permission required.

TIME TO UPDATE YOUR ADDRESS. If you have not updated your mailing address and phone number and also provided a local address and phone number if you do not live in campus housing for the 2013-2014 academic year, please do so immediately. Please login to "myWM", select the "Banner Self Service" Tab, select "Personal Information" and then select "Update Address(es) and Phone(s)". This requirement is part of the code of student conduct, and failure to keep your information current can be considered a violation of the code. For a complete list of address types, their definition and who to contact to update please visit:

GRADUATE ARTS AND SCIENCES 2013-2014 PROGRAM CATALOG. The 2013-2014 catalog can be found online at the following site:
http://catalog.wm.edu/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=877. This is an invaluable resource to students. The catalog can only be found online. A grant from the W&M Committee on Sustainability made the online catalog project possible. Thanks to this initiative, the College no longer prints catalogs, and we are thereby saving 750,000 sheets of paper, plus the energy to produce and transport catalogs each year.

ASSIGNED STUDY ROOMS – SWEM LIBRARY
There are a total of 16 assigned study rooms located on the second and third floors of Swem Library. Each study room has a desk with two shelves and a chair. Anyone wishing to be assigned a study must apply to Swem Administration by the end of the first full week of classes each semester. https://swem.wm.edu/policies/assigned-study. These study rooms provide great opportunities for private, quiet study away from the hustle and bustle of other areas of Swem.

THE CONVERSATION PARTNER PROGRAM (CPP) is an opportunity for domestic and international graduate students to meet informally and talk about student life, music, sports, or any other topic they find mutually interesting. For about an hour a week, both partners enjoy learning about each other’s cultures. For the international students in particular, it provides an opportunity to practice everyday spoken English in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere. For an application or for more information, visit http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/graduatecenter/conversation/index.php

W&M CAREER CENTER RESOURCES
The W&M Career Center has a great deal of valuable information for graduate students as well as undergraduate students on job search information, writing a resume/CV, interviewing for jobs, and more. See http://www.wm.edu/offices/career/events/index.php to learn about upcoming workshops throughout the year as well as online tips and resources.

Visit the FALL 2013 CAREER FAIR on the third floor of the Sadler Center on Friday, September 13th from 12:00pm to 4:00pm to gather information and talk with representatives from a variety of businesses, nonprofit organizations and government agencies. The Fair is open to all majors, all class years. Candidates from other colleges and universities are also welcome. There are no requirements to attend and participate! Please bring copies of your resume and be prepared to talk with representatives from a variety of businesses, nonprofit organizations and government agencies. http://tinyurl.com/WMFAIR13

Students who want to be eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan and for use of the Student Health Center in 2013-2014 should be sure to understand this information and review the information on the Student Health Center website. The 2013-2014 annual student premium is $1,541 ($709 for the fall coverage period and $832 for the Spring/Summer coverage period). Students who want more information can contact the Student Insurance Coordinator (trsike@wm.edu) after reviewing the information provided at http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/plan/index.php

Students admitted Fall 2006 or after who register full-time or with Research Graduate status, and all F-1 and J-1 international students, will be enrolled in the College-endorsed Student Insurance Plan and the cost will be billed to their student account in two installments (fall and spring semester) UNLESS proof of other adequate health insurance coverage is provided by submitting a waiver request by the posted deadline each academic year and the waiver request is approved. Waiver requests submitted after the deadline will be considered at the discretion of the College. The waiver request is available at https://studentcenter.uhcsr.com/wm. For more information review the Insurance page of the Student Health Center website (http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/waiverinfo/index.php). This requirement also applies to students who receive a W&M degree and then continue in a different W&M degree program (i.e., Bachelor’s to Master’s or Master’s to PhD).

STUDENTS WHO WILL BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS

1. If you don’t submit a waiver request by the deadline, you will have the College’s Insurance Policy billed to your student account in two installments (fall and spring semester). You MUST be enrolled at the College with either full-time or Graduate Research statuses BOTH semesters (Fall 2013 & Spring 2014) to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014). There is no option to change or convert your coverage later, so if you think there is a chance you may not be enrolled with full-time or Graduate Research status for the Spring 2014, read the appropriate section below.

2. Full-time or Research Graduate students who are enrolled in either the Annual, Annual in Installments or Spring/Summer coverage will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Summer 2014 terms(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered during the summer.

STUDENTS WHO MAY NOT BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS.

1. If you think you will become a part-time or continuous enrollment student in the Spring 2014 semester and you wish to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014), you MUST actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments) in the Fall 2013 semester. If you enroll in the Annual in Installments or you enroll in the Fall coverage only, you will NOT be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan in the Spring 2014 semester when you become a part-time or continuous enrollment student. There is no option to change or convert your coverage later so you should plan ahead.

2. If you must actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments), you may do so by completing the College Enrollment Request form at https://forms.wm.edu/9618, which authorizes W&M to process your annual enrollment and bill your student account accordingly. You MUST select the Annual coverage period only, not any other coverage period and you will be billed for the entire annual premium in the Fall 2013 semester.

3. If you choose the Annual coverage but you cannot afford to pay the entire premium in the Fall, you will have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments utilizing the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan, You will not have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments unless you utilize the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan, http://www.wm.edu/offices/financialoperations/sa/eservices/paymentplan/index.php.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students who enrolled in the Annual coverage in the Fall 2013 semester will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Spring 2014 semester and the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered for the summer.

Important information on W&M Student Health Center eligibility for 2013-2014

All full-time or Research Graduate students are eligible for services at the W&M Student Health Center (SHC). Services offered at the SHC include a variety of primary care medical services (including laboratory testing) and pharmacy services.

1. Full-time students are assessed a Student Health Center fee as part of their tuition and fees during the fall and spring semesters.
2. Research Graduate students will need to make arrangements for the payment of the Student Health Center fee before accessing services during the fall and spring semesters.
3. Full-time or Research Graduate statuses in the spring semester qualifies students for use of the Student Health Center in the summer, with payment of the summer Student Health Center fee, unless the student graduates in May.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students are not eligible for services at the Student Health Center.
5. Students who have the College’s Student Insurance Plan but who are no longer eligible to use the services of the Student Health Center due to a change in student status (part-time, continuous enrollment or graduation), may still use the pharmacy services but may not use the medical services at the SHC.

2013 RAFT DEBATE – OCTOBER 2
The Raft Debate, a much beloved William and Mary tradition, will be held at the Commonwealth Auditorium, Sadler Center, on Wednesday, October 2, 2013 at 6:30 PM. Watch as a scientist, a social scientist, and a humanist, sole survivors of an imaginary shipwreck, debate the values of their respective discipline for the rest of humanity. A fourth debater, a Devil’s Advocate, joins the survivors and argues against all three of their disciplines. Only one of these faculty members can be saved. The winner of the debate is chosen by a judge based on audience reaction. Come join the excitement as the arguments heat up and the tensions rise until the final, lone survivor, is decided. This year’s survivors representing their disciplines and the fate of humanity are: Humanities: Associate Professor John Riofrio [Modern Languages and Literatures]; Social Sciences: Professor Dan Cristol [Biology]; Natural and Computational Sciences: Associate Professor Thomas Linneman [Sociology]; The Devil’s Advocate will be played by Associate Professor Sarah Day [Mathematics]. Virginia Torczon, Dean of Graduate Studies and Research, Arts & Sciences will be the Judge. Be sure to attend---your applause and cheers will determine the direction of humanity! A reception with cake in Tidewater A will be held following the event, which is free and open to the public.
OFFICE HOURS WITH THE PRESIDENT
President Reveley will hold office hours for students this semester. Students can sign up for 15 minute appointments. Contact Carla Costello cacostello@wm.edu to sign up.

October 7 from 11:00-noon
November 1 from 3:00-4:00
November 14 from 10:00-11:00

W&M GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM COMMITTEE

The Arts and Sciences Graduate Research Symposium (A&S GRS) is the only broadly themed graduate student focused conference designed to bring together graduate students from differing areas of study and from all stages of the degree process. The next GRS committee meeting will be held Wednesday, September 18, at 5:00 pm in the Stetson House. Pizza will be served. The Symposium Committee is composed of an inspired group of graduate students dedicated to developing strategies for organizing a professional interdisciplinary conference. With 150 presenters from the College of William and Mary and regional universities, the A&S GRS gives you, as a graduate student, the opportunity to step up and take on volunteer positions as leaders and integral members on the symposium planning team. This is an excellent opportunity to gain expertise as a valuable addition to your resumé or future letters of recommendation. Please bring your ideas and suggestions. Please send an e-mail to Chasity Roberts cyroberts@wm.edu if you are interested and plan on attending the meeting or would like more information.

Symposium Committee Leadership Positions:

Humanities and Sciences Chair: Will jointly ensure the successful execution of the annual Graduate Research Symposium. Each Chair is responsible for the creation of event guidelines and materials that are congruent with the practices of their respective disciplines. Their duties will include, but are not limited to: appointing Symposium Committee members, presiding over Symposium Committee meetings, initiating a Call for Abstracts, selection of participants, communication with accepted and declined applicants, creation of event program, establishing evaluation criteria, and awards.

Computer/Technical Manager: Assists the Humanities and Sciences Chairs in the coordination, organization, and implementation of the Graduate Research Symposium, including room setup and presentations (a/v).

Volunteer Coordinator: Will plan, organize, and manage the event volunteers. Duties include assigning volunteer tasks, creating volunteer schedules, and overseeing registration procedures during the event.

Internal Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the event to the College of William and Mary faculty, staff, and students. Duties include the design and delivery of brochures and flyers, frequent e-mail communication, and selected invitations to guest participants (e.g., President, Provost, Deans, and Departmental Directors of Graduate Studies).

External Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the Symposium to the Williamsburg community and regional universities. Duties include but are not limited to the design of advertising copy, press releases, and correspondence with departmental chairs at regional universities.

Web Master: Will create and maintain the Graduate Research Symposium web site, including the development of web-based forms and the maintenance of a web database.

Publications Specialist: Will design and print the Graduate Research Symposium Program.

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING

A&S Graduate Student Research Grants. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support [maximum of $300] from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities. Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority. In 2012-13, 39 students received A&S Graduate Student Research Grants with an average award of approximately $299.

2013 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in February and one in April). Applications for Fall 2013 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on October 4, 2013, and will cover expenses incurred September 1 through December 31, 2013. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student's faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application form can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the Graduate Student Association Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

GRADUATE CENTER PROGRAMS. The Graduate Center, located in the Stetson House at 232 Jamestown Road, offers courses and workshops intended to complement your academic curriculum. Meeting times are chosen to avoid conflicts with your primary academic commitments.

COLL 501 (Section 1): English Conversation & Pronunciation – 13371; Begins September 10th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Cortney Cain
Tuesdays, Millington 123, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

In this course students who are non-native English speakers will learn more about the rhythm, stress, and intonation patterns of spoken English, improve their ability to communicate with others, and practice distinguishing sounds that are unique to the English language. Recorded assignments and in-class discussions will allow students opportunities to practice their conversational skills and learn more about American culture.

Thursdays, Blow 311, 5:00 – 6:50 p.m.

Listening and speaking are inextricably linked. Active listening is a key component to correcting pronunciation errors, and is essential for academic, professional, and personal success. This course is designed for nonnative English speakers who wish to develop their English proficiency. A variety of resources including film, CDs, and the Internet, expose students to different American accents and speech patterns. Recorded assignments provide opportunities for self-assessment and instructor feedback.

COLL 505 (Section 1) : Oral Presentation Skills – 13403; Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Wednesdays, Blow 332, 5:00 – 6:50 p.m.

COLL 505 (Section 2): Oral Presentation Skills – 19210; Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Wednesdays, Blow 332, 7:00 – 8:50 p.m.

This course is for domestic and international students who want to refine their oral communication skills and learn more about presentation norms. Students will participate in various kinds of oral communication activities, including presenting speeches given for different purposes, critiquing speech content, organization, and delivery, and presenting a paper following specific guidelines set forth by a conference or association.

COLL 525: Writing for Publication – 19211 Begins September 12th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Barbara Monteith
Thursdays, Blow 331, 5:00 – 6:20 p.m.

A course for domestic and international students who have mastered the basics of academic writing and are preparing articles for publication in the sciences and humanities. Students will examine articles from their field to learn more about field-specific styles. In addition, they will review and revise their own writing and participate in peer reviews. Participants in this course should currently be involved in doing research.
COLL 530: Thesis/Dissertation Writing - 18501
Begins September 11th
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Kristin Maurice
Wednesdays, 11:00am-12:20pm, Millington 123
This is a course for domestic and international students who are actively writing their theses/dissertations, including students who are writing articles for publication as components of their theses/dissertations. In collaboration with their academic advisor and in consultation with the instructor, students will organize and write individual chapters, simultaneously reviewing and revising their writing. Mini-workshops throughout the 10-week class will address topics that are relevant to the thesis/dissertation writer, such as organization, effective research strategies and citations, advisor/advisee interaction, and time management. Instructor permission required.

THE CONVERSATION PARTNER PROGRAM (CPP) is an opportunity for domestic and international graduate students to meet informally and talk about student life, music, sports, or any other topic they find mutually interesting. For about an hour a week, both partners enjoy learning about each other’s cultures. For the international students in particular, it provides an opportunity to practice everyday spoken English in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere. For an application or for more information, visit http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/graduatecenter/conversation/index.php

GRADUATE STUDENT INFORMATION PROTOCOL – ACTION REQUIRED IMMEDIATELY

Each semester students are required to update and validate their personal information with the College. This web-based questionnaire will allow you to securely update all of the following in one place: Emergency Notification System, Emergency Contact(s), Emergency Evacuation Plan (if you reside in campus housing), Personal and Parental Information. Begin your personal information update now. All students are required to complete this simple step-by-step process. Information you provide will be validated and then transferred to your Banner student account. Any student who does not accurately complete the verification process by September 23, 2013 will have an administrative HOLD placed on his/her student account, preventing pre-registration. Please update your personal information when prompted in order to avoid any registration difficulties. After verification, you may access the personal information update through Banner Self Service. Thank you for helping us to have the most accurate information in our Banner system.

2013 RAFT DEBATE – OCTOBER 2

The Raft Debate, a much beloved William and Mary tradition, will be held at the Commonwealth Auditorium, Sadler Center, on Wednesday, October 2, 2013 at 6:30 PM. Watch as a scientist, a social scientist, and a humanist, sole survivors of an imaginary shipwreck, debate the values of their respective discipline for the rest of humanity. A fourth debater, a Devil’s Advocate, joins the survivors and argues against all three of their disciplines. Only one of these faculty members can be saved. The winner of the debate is chosen by a judge based on audience reaction. Come join the excitement as the arguments heat up and the tensions rise until the final, lone survivor, is decided. This year’s survivors representing their disciplines and the fate of humanity are: Humanities: Associate Professor John Riofrio [Modern Languages and Literatures]; Social Sciences: Professor Dan Cristol [Biology]; Natural and Computational Sciences: Associate Professor Thomas Linneman [Sociology]. The Devil’s Advocate will be played by Associate Professor Sarah Day [Mathematics]. Virginia Torczon, Dean of Graduate Studies and Research, Arts & Sciences will be the Judge. Be sure to attend---your applause and cheers will determine the direction of humanity! A reception with cake in Tidewater A will be held following the event, which is free and open to the public.
W&M GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM COMMITTEE

The Arts and Sciences Graduate Research Symposium (A&S GRS) is the only broadly themed graduate student focused conference designed to bring together graduate students from differing areas of study and from all stages of the degree process. The next GRS committee meeting will be held Wednesday, September 18, at 5:00 pm in the Stetson House. Pizza will be served. The Symposium Committee is composed of an inspired group of graduate students dedicated to developing strategies for organizing a professional interdisciplinary conference. With 150 presenters from the College of William and Mary and regional universities, the A&S GRS gives you, as a graduate student, the opportunity to step up and take on volunteer positions as leaders and integral members on the symposium planning team. This is an excellent opportunity to gain expertise as a valuable addition to your resumé or future letters of recommendation. Please bring your ideas and suggestions. Please send an e-mail to Chasity Roberts cyroberts@wm.edu if you are interested and plan on attending the meeting or would like more information.

Symposium Committee Leadership Positions:

Humanities and Sciences Chair: Will jointly ensure the successful execution of the annual Graduate Research Symposium. Each Chair is responsible for the creation of event guidelines and materials that are congruent with the practices of their respective disciplines. Their duties will include, but are not limited to: appointing Symposium Committee members, presiding over Symposium Committee meetings, initiating a Call for Abstracts, selection of participants, communication with accepted and declined applicants, creation of event program, establishing evaluation criteria, and awards.

Computer/Technical Manager: Assists the Humanities and Sciences Chairs in the coordination, organization, and implementation of the Graduate Research Symposium, including room setup and presentations (a/v).

Volunteer Coordinator: Will plan, organize, and manage the event volunteers. Duties include assigning volunteer tasks, creating volunteer schedules, and overseeing registration procedures during the event.

Internal Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the event to the College of William and Mary faculty, staff, and students. Duties include the design and delivery of brochures and flyers, frequent e-mail communication, and selected invitations to guest participants (e.g., President, Provost, Deans, and Departmental Directors of Graduate Studies).

External Communication Specialist: Will be responsible for marketing the Symposium to the Williamsburg community and regional universities. Duties include but are not limited to the design of advertising copy, press releases, and correspondence with departmental chairs at regional universities.

Web Master: Will create and maintain the Graduate Research Symposium web site, including the development of web-based forms and the maintenance of a web database.

Publications Specialist: Will design and print the Graduate Research Symposium Program.

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING

A&S GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support [maximum of $300] from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities. Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority. In 2012-13, 39 students received A&S Graduate Student Research Grants with an average award of approximately $299.

2013 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in...
February and one in April. Applications for Fall 2013 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on October 4, 2013, and will cover expenses incurred September 1 through December 31, 2013. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student's faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application form can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the Graduate Student Association Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

TOOLS AND APPROACHES FOR PRE-TERM AND MID-SEMESTER COURSE EVALUATION
Friday, September 27, Noon-1:00PM, Blow 201.
Presenters: Jamel Donnor, Education, Jennifer Kahn, Anthropology; Michelle Leliivre, Anthropology; Anya Lunden, Linguistics; Joel Schwartz, Govt; Jaime Settle, Govt.

All faculty and graduate students are invited to attend the Teaching Project workshop of the fall – topic and date, below. Faculty are often left unsatisfied by end-of-the-semester teaching evaluations that leave us with ideas of how to improve our courses at a time when the course is already completed. Our workshop will explore how we can receive and incorporate student feedback on our courses within a single semester. It will include how-tos on survey software available to us, and case studies highlighting pre-semester surveys for organizing students into working groups and mid-semester evaluations for evaluating student learning and effective teaching methods. A final case study will consider how to draw on student feedback at mid-semester to make appropriate changes to our teaching methods and/or course content before the end of the semester. As the workshop will illustrate, incorporating student evaluations from the onset of teaching and at mid-term engages students directly in the learning process, can be used as an effective method for clarifying teaching objectives, and allows professors more fluidity in their teaching practice.

Lunch will be served: Please RSVP to Joel Schwartz at jxschw@wm.edu.

RAFT DEBATE OCTOBER 2:
A Delicate Balance between Comedy and Lecture

The Raft Debate, a much beloved William and Mary tradition, will be held at the Commonwealth Auditorium, Sadler Center, on Wednesday, October 2, 2013 at 6:30 PM. Watch as a scientist, a social scientist, and a humanist, sole survivors of an imaginary shipwreck, debate the values of their respective discipline for the rest of humanity. A fourth debater, a Devil’s Advocate, joins the survivors and argues against all three of their disciplines. Only one of these faculty members can be saved. The winner of the debate is chosen by a judge based on audience reaction. Come join the excitement as the arguments heat up and the tensions rise until the final, lone survivor, is decided. This year’s survivors representing their disciplines and the fate of humanity are: Humanities: Associate Professor John Riofrio [Modern Languages and Literatures]; Social Sciences: Professor Dan Cristol [Biology]; Natural and Computational Sciences: Associate Professor Thomas Linneman [Sociology]. The Devil’s Advocate will be played by Associate Professor Sarah Day [Mathematics]. Virginia Torczon, Dean of Graduate Studies and Research, Arts & Sciences will be the Judge. Be sure to attend---your applause and cheers will determine the direction of humanity! A reception with cake in Tidewater A will be held following the event, which is free and open to the public.

STUDENT ACCOUNTS LATE FEE REMINDER -
All student accounts with past due balances will be assessed a late fee of 10% of the past due balance (not to exceed $100.00 per term) on October 1, 2013. Check your student account on myWM and make sure all billed balances are either covered by a pending payment plan or financial aid or are paid in full by October 1, 2013. Contact Student Accounts at bursar@wm.edu or 757-221-1220 if you have questions.

FROM THE A&S GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (GSA)
The next GSA Meeting will be Thursday, October 3rd at 6:00pm in the Sadler Center's York Room. Pizza and refreshments will be provided. If you’re interested in learning more about these exciting events, helping out with event planning, or learning about the GSA in general, please contact me at nasiddiqui@email.wm.edu or visit our webpage http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/home. I look forward to hearing from you. Let’s make this the best year yet!

GSA SUPPLEMENTAL CONFERENCE TRAVEL FUNDING. Through a collaborative effort between the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) and the GSA, a limited number of $200 awards are available to assist selected Arts & Sciences graduate students who are attending or presenting at a research conference. The OGSR/GSA Conference Funding competitively awards Arts & Sciences graduate students who wish to attend or present at research conferences in their field of study. Conference Funding is financed through the Office of Graduate Studies and Research; however, it is solely administered by the GSA. The goal of Conference Funding is to supplement other funding sources and to help offset the expenses that graduate students accrue advancing their scholarship and knowledge. Since conference experience and attendance are critical for the job market, Conference Funding is designed to encourage graduate student presence at conferences by addressing some of the limitations of other funding sources. Award recipients of Fall grants are required to give a presentation at the Graduate Research Symposium (March 21-22, 2014). The application deadline for conference travel taken during the period September 1, 2013 through December 31, 2013 is 5:00pm on October 27, 2013. For more information and the application, please see http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING
A&S GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support [maximum of $300] from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities. Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority. In 2012-13, 39 students received A&S Graduate Student Research Grants with an average award of approximately $299.

2013 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in February and one in April). Applications for Fall 2013 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on October 4, 2013, and will cover expenses incurred September 1 through December 31, 2013. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student’s faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application form can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the Graduate Student Association Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.
IMPORTANT INFORMATION NEEDED FROM A&S GRAD STUDENTS. The Graduate Portfolio website http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/graduate_portfolio/index.php, sponsored by The A&S Graduate Student Association and the Office of Graduate Studies and Research, is currently accepting updates. The website is designed specifically to showcase the honors and accomplishments of W&M A&S graduate students.

PLEASE E-MAIL YOUR INFORMATION TO YOUR GSA REPRESENTATIVE BY OCTOBER 18 FOR POSTING TO THE WEB SITE (see e-mail addresses below). You also have the option to submit your information on the web at https://forms.wm.edu/1539. To submit the information on the web you will need your WMuserid and password.

This "Graduate Portfolio" website makes accessible to the public the awards, publications, and other noteworthy activities of current and recently graduated students. The Portfolio allows undergraduate students, faculty, staff, alumni and prospective students to note what W&M A&S graduate students are doing in their programs and with their degrees. The Portfolio also increases awareness of the successes of W&M A&S graduate students, and encourages further opportunities for both enrolled and graduated W&M students.

This call for information will cover accomplishments dated from September 2011 through the present. Subsequently, information will be updated three times per year and will be archived as a valuable resource on the web site by year. The site will list accomplishments under the following categories: Awards/Honors, Community Service/Outreach, Fellowships, Internships, Conference Presentations, Publications, Research Grants, and Recent Alumni Employment/Positions. Graduate Student Association (GSA) representatives will collect the information from students in their respective departments/programs. We ask that you send only accomplishments received outside of William & Mary, the exception being nationally competitive awards affiliated with William & Mary (e.g., publication in the William & Mary Quarterly) or prestigious College-wide awards (e.g., Thatcher Prize for Excellence).

Awards/activities must be listed in the following format for inclusion in the Graduate Portfolio:

Category of Award/Activity, Title of Award/Activity, Date of Award/Activity, Student First and Last Name (bold), Degree, Program.

Fellowship Example: NSF Fellow, 2011-2012, John Smith, PhD, Physics

You may use any format accepted in your discipline for the Publications and Conference Presentations, with the student name, degree, and program added at the end of the citation. Provide complete citations, including up to ten co-authors (with "et al." indicating co-authors greater than ten), for Publications and Conference Presentations.

Please e-mail your information in the appropriate format to your GSA representative listed below. You also have the option to submit your information on the web at https://forms.wm.edu/1539. You will need your WMuserid and password. Note if you use the web submission, the information will not automatically be updated on the A&S Graduate Portfolio page.

Fellows are recent Master's or Ph.D. graduates who have held a graduate degree for less than three years at the time of application. Junior Fellows are recent Bachelor's graduates who have held a degree for less than five years at the time of application.

The Arts & Sciences Graduate Student Association of The College of William and Mary invites all Arts & Sciences graduate students to submit abstracts for the 13th Annual Graduate Research Symposium, to be held March 21 & 22, 2014. The broadly themed conference is designed to bring together Arts & Sciences graduate students from differing areas of study and from all stages of the degree process. The congenial setting and professionally-oriented environment provide an opportunity for students to explain and discuss their research, while fostering community relationships across discipline boundaries. Abstracts of 250 words (1700 characters) are requested for the following categories of submission:

- ORAL PRESENTATIONS: Disciplines in the Natural and Computational Sciences will have 12 minutes to present with 3 minutes for questions and disciplines in the Humanities and Social Sciences will have 15 minutes to present with 5 minutes for questions.

- POSTER PRESENTATIONS: Presenters are asked to be available for about one hour to discuss their work with symposium attendees. Size of posters must be limited to dimensions of no larger than 48” x 48”.

To submit an abstract, please visit http://web.wm.edu/grs/ and follow the instructions on the form. All accepted abstracts will be printed in the symposium program available at the event. Submission of an abstract implies a commitment to present your research at the 2014 Graduate Research Symposium. Therefore, please make sure that you understand all of the requirements before submitting an abstract. Please contact the Symposium Committee if you have a question. All accepted presenters will be notified by the Graduate Research Symposium Committee in mid-December 2013. Over $5,500 in anticipated awards will be made to presenters in several categories.

SURVEY FOR A&S GRADUATE STUDENTS

In an effort to guide the Graduate Studies Advisory Board on the best plan of support for all A&S Graduate Students, a survey (http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/JLFQGXH) was created for your response. The survey is only 9 questions with the option of providing your own suggestions. Please take the time to complete this survey by no later than 11:59 p.m., October 9, 2013. Please be thoughtful in your responses — no requests for parking relief or more parties.

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Continuing students in Graduate Studies, Arts and Sciences can begin online registration beginning October 28. In order for E-bills to be as accurate as possible, students should register no later than December 6.

October 28 – November 8
Spring priority registration for continuing students

November 9 – December 6
Spring schedule adjustment/registration for continuing students

Reminder – Students who are Virginia residents but have not submitted the “Application for Virginia In-state Tuition Privileges” http://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/documents/tuition/Do micate_Application.pdf must do so prior to registering for classes or you will be charged tuition at the out-of-state rate. Students currently classified as out-of-state may also submit this form to the Registrar’s office if you believe you may now be eligible for in-state classification.

Registration after December 6 creates a number of problems for students and campus offices, including the following: (1) Students who intend to be full-time but are not registered full-time by December 6 might not be listed as being eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan at the beginning of the semester. (2) The Financial Aid office will not apply a full tuition waiver to an eligible student’s account until after the student has registered full-time. Therefore, a student who registers late may receive an E-bill for tuition before the Financial Aid office has applied the waiver to the account. (3) Eligible students who are not preregistered by December 6 will probably not receive an out-of-state to in-state tuition waiver from the Financial Aid office before E-bills are sent in mid-December, and are therefore likely to see an out-of-state tuition charge on their December or January E-bill when they finally register for the spring 2014 semester. The College has instituted late charges on unpaid student bills, including tuition bills that are incorrect as a result of the student’s failure to register prior to December 6.

Flipping Without Flopping: Inverting Teaching in Response to Students' Learning Needs

Tuesday, October 8, 2013, 12:30PM - 1:45PM, Blow 201. Judith Harris, Pavey Family Chair in Educational Technology, School of Education asks what are the potential benefits and risks of "flipping classrooms" -- that is, using in-the-classroom time for content-based, student-focused interactions, and outside-of-the-classroom time for self-paced and/or small-group learning using a variety of digital and non-digital tools and resources? How are instructors flipping classrooms with university students? What kinds of learning and teaching are most effectively flipped? How are various educational technologies used to support different forms of inverted learning/teaching (aka: flipping classrooms)? This session will overview the flipped classroom phenomenon, focusing upon instructional options and decision-making that can guide effective inverted teaching in higher education. Lunch will be served. If you would like to attend, please RSVP to Joel Schwartz, at jxschw@wm.edu.

(2) The Financial Aid office will not apply a full tuition waiver to an eligible student’s account until after the student has registered full-time. Therefore, a student who registers late may receive an E-bill for tuition before the Financial Aid office has applied the waiver to the account. (3) Eligible students who are not preregistered by December 6 will probably not receive an out-of-state to in-state tuition waiver from the Financial Aid office before E-bills are sent in mid-December, and are therefore likely to see an out-of-state tuition charge on their December or January E-bill when they finally register for the spring 2014 semester. The College has instituted late charges on unpaid student bills, including tuition bills that are incorrect as a result of the student’s failure to register prior to December 6.

A&S GRADUATE STUDENT TAILGATE

The Graduate Studies Advisory Board is sponsoring an A&S Graduate Student (only) Homecoming Tailgate Party on 10/26/2013 from 1:30-3:30pm on the Cohen Career Center terrace. There will be free food and adult beverages available. Don't miss this great chance to network with your fellow A&S graduate students and the Advisory Board! Eight lucky students who attend the event will have their names drawn at random to win one of 8 ($25) Barnes and Noble Gift Cards. Please RSVP TODAY. https://forms.wm.edu/11210

FROM THE A&S GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (GSA)

GSA SUPPLEMENTAL CONFERENCE TRAVEL FUNDING.

Through a collaborative effort between the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) and the GSA, a limited number of $200 awards are available to assist selected Arts & Sciences graduate students who are attending or presenting at a research conference. The OGSR/GSA Conference Funding competitively awards Arts & Sciences graduate students who wish to attend or present at research conferences in their field of study. Conference Funding is financed through the Office of Graduate Studies and Research; however, it is solely administered by the GSA. The goal of Conference Funding is to supplement other funding sources and to help offset the expenses that graduate students accrue advancing their scholarship and knowledge. Award recipients of Fall grants are required to give a presentation at the Graduate Research Symposium (March 21-22, 2014). The application deadline for conference travel taken during the period September 1, 2013 through December 31, 2013 is 5:00pm on October 27, 2013. For more information and the application, please see http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.
IMPORTANT INFORMATION NEEDED FROM A&S GRAD STUDENTS. The Graduate Portfolio website http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/graduate_portfolio/index.php, sponsored by The A&S Graduate Student Association and the Office of Graduate Studies and Research, is currently accepting updates. The website is designed specifically to showcase the honors and accomplishments of W&M A&S graduate students.

PLEASE E-MAIL YOUR INFORMATION TO YOUR GSA REPRESENTATIVE BY OCTOBER 18 FOR POSTING TO THE WEB SITE (see e-mail addresses below). You also have the option to submit your information on the web at https://forms.wm.edu/1539. To submit the information on the web you will need your WMuserid and password.

This "Graduate Portfolio" website makes accessible to the public the awards, publications, and other noteworthy activities of current and recently graduated students. The Portfolio allows undergraduate students, faculty, staff, alumni and prospective students to note what W&M A&S graduate students are doing in their programs and with their degrees. The Portfolio also increases awareness of the successes of W&M A&S graduate students, and encourages further opportunities for both enrolled and graduated W&M students.

This call for information will cover accomplishments dated from September 2011 through the present. Subsequently, information will be updated three times per year and will be archived as a valuable resource on the web site by year. The site will list accomplishments under the following categories: Awards/Honors, Community Service/Outreach, Fellowships, Internships, Conference Presentations, Publications, Research Grants, and Recent Alumni Employment/Positions. Graduate Student Association (GSA) representatives will collect the information from students in their respective departments/programs. We ask that you send only accomplishments received outside of William & Mary, the exception being nationally competitive awards affiliated with William & Mary (e.g., publication in the William & Mary Quarterly) or prestigious College-wide awards (e.g., Thatcher Prize for Excellence).

Awards/activities must be listed in the following format for inclusion in the Graduate Portfolio:

Category of Award/Activity, Title of Award/Activity, Date of Award/Activity, Student First and Last Name (bold), Degree, Program.

Fellowship Example: NSF Fellow, 2011-2012, John Smith, PhD, Physics

You may use any format accepted in your discipline for the Publications and Conference Presentations, with the student name, degree, and program added at the end of the citation. Provide complete citations, including up to ten co-authors (with "et al." indicating co-authors greater than ten), for Publications and Conference Presentations.

Please e-mail your information in the appropriate format to your GSA representative listed below. You also have the option to submit your information on the web at https://forms.wm.edu/1539. You will need your WMuserid and password. Note if you use the web submission, the information will not automatically be updated on the A&S Graduate Portfolio page.

PHYSICAL STANDARDS FOR THeses & DISSERTATIONS

The Physical Standards provides a set of general standards for the preparation of theses and dissertations for graduate degrees in Arts & Sciences. Before you begin the final formatting of your thesis or dissertation, please carefully review the Physical Standards and consult with your program for additional specific style guidelines.

It is your responsibility to review the entire document to make sure you are in compliance with the Physical Standards. It is required that students submit one complete draft of their thesis/dissertation for review of format by the OGSR 3 weeks prior to the published deadline before submitting the final copies. For January 2014 graduation, the draft deadline is November 15, 2013. The OGSR prefers to receive this required draft by electronic copy to apgrad@wm.edu. PLEASE REFER TO WEBSITE FOR ADDITIONAL DETAILS

Swem Library - OA Week Activities
In celebrating Open Access Week, being held October 22-28, Swem Library has planned several programs; one of which is targeted towards graduate students. Science & Humanities Perspectives on Open Access Tuesday, Oct. 22, 3-4:30 p.m., Botetourt Theater. Dennis Manos, Vice Provost for Research and Graduate Professional Studies, and Karin Wulf, director of the Omohundro Institute for Early American History and Culture, will discuss open access as it relates to scholarly research and publication. This discussion is especially relevant to graduate students writing a dissertation and interested in academic publishing. Everyone is welcome. Coffee, tea and cookies served.
For more information, please contact Carrie Cooper: clcooper@wm.edu

W&M PIZZA LUNCH TO LEARN ABOUT APPLYING FOR VIRGINIA SPACE GRANT CONSORTIUM RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS/SCHOLARSHIPS

Thursday, October 31, 11:30-12:30 p.m., Sadler Center, Tidewater A, RSVP to jdotzaue@odu.edu. W&M graduate students who are U.S. citizens have been very successful in receiving these fellowships. During the past four years, sixteen W&M A&S graduate students have received new $5,000 research fellowships, ten W&M A&S grad students have received $5,000 renewals, and nine W&M undergraduate students have received research scholarships of up to $8500. More W&M students would receive awards if more applied. At the lunch, representatives from the Virginia Space Grant Consortium will provide information about applying for these valuable fellowships/scholarships. Undergraduate and graduate students (Master’s or Doctoral level) can be pursuing any field of study with aerospace relevance. The term "aerospace" is interpreted very broadly, although the application must explain the aerospace relevance of the research. If you have questions about these awards and can’t join the pizza lunch, feel free to send an e-mail to Dean Torczon (vitorc@wm.edu). Applications can be found at http://www.vsgc.odu.edu/ under the Scholarships/Fellowships/Internships link.

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Continuing students in Graduate Studies, Arts and Sciences can begin online registration October 28. In order for E-bills to be as accurate as possible, students must register no later than December 6.

October 28 – November 8
Spring priority registration for continuing students

November 9 – December 6
Spring schedule adjustment/registration for continuing students

Reminder – Students who are Virginia residents but have not submitted the “Application for Virginia In-state Tuition Privileges” http://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/documents/tuition/Document_Application.pdf must do so prior to registering for classes or you will be charged tuition at the out-of-state rate. Students currently classified as out-of-state may also submit this form to the Registrar’s office if you believe you may now be eligible for in-state classification.

Registration after December 6 creates a number of problems for students and campus offices, including the following: (1) Students who intend to be full-time but are not registered full-time by December 6 might not be listed as being eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan at the beginning of the semester. (2) The Financial Aid office will not apply a full tuition waiver to an eligible student’s account until after the student has registered full-time. Therefore, a student who registers late may receive an E-bill for tuition before the Financial Aid office has applied the waiver to the account. (3) Eligible students who are not preregistered by December 6 will probably not receive an out-of-state to in-state tuition waiver from the Financial Aid office before E-bills are sent in mid-December, and are therefore likely to see an out-of-state tuition charge on their December or January E-bill when they finally register for the spring 2014 semester. The College has instituted late charges on unpaid student bills, including tuition bills that are incorrect as a result of the student’s failure to register prior to December 6.
GRADUATE CENTER PROGRAMS

The Graduate Center, located in the Stetson House at 232 Jamestown Road, offers courses and workshops intended to complement your academic curriculum. Meeting times are chosen to avoid conflicts with your primary academic commitments.

COLL 503 (Section 1): Listening, Speaking & Pronunciation Skills - 25763; Begins January 28, 2014 (0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Tuesday, 5:00 – 6:50pm, Blow 332
Listening and speaking are inextricably linked. Active listening is a key component to correcting pronunciation errors, and is essential for academic, professional, and personal success. This course is designed for nonnative English speakers who wish to develop their English proficiency. A variety of resources including film, CDs, and the Internet, expose students to different American accents and speech patterns. Recorded assignments provide opportunities for self-assessment and instructor feedback.

GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM
Abstract Submission Deadline: NOVEMBER 15, 2013

The Arts & Sciences Graduate Student Association of The College of William and Mary invites all Arts & Sciences graduate students to submit abstracts for the 13th Annual Graduate Research Symposium, to be held March 21 & 22, 2014. The broadly themed conference is designed to bring together Arts & Sciences graduate students from differing areas of study and from all stages of the degree process. The congenial setting and professionally-oriented environment provide an opportunity for students to explain and discuss their research, while fostering community relationships across discipline boundaries. Abstracts of 250 words (1700 characters) are requested for the following categories of submission:

- ORAL PRESENTATIONS: Disciplines in the Natural and Computational Sciences will have 12 minutes to present with 3 minutes for questions and disciplines in the Humanities and Social Sciences will have 15 minutes to present with 5 minutes for questions.

- POSTER PRESENTATIONS: Presenters are asked to be available for about one hour to discuss their work with symposium attendees. Size of posters must be limited to dimensions of no larger than 48” x 48”.

To submit an abstract, please visit http://web.wm.edu/grs/ and follow the instructions on the form. All accepted abstracts will be printed in the symposium program available at the event. Submission of an abstract implies a commitment to present your research at the 2014 Graduate Research Symposium. Therefore, please make sure that you understand all of the requirements before submitting an abstract. Please contact the Symposium Committee if you have a question. All accepted presenters will be notified by the Graduate Research Symposium Committee in mid-December 2013. Over $5,500 in anticipated awards will be made to presenters in several categories.

COHEN CAREER CENTER ETIQUETTE LUNCH
The Cohen Career Center and the Office of Graduate Studies and Research cordially invites you to attend an “Etiquette Lunch” on Friday, November 8 at 12:30 PM. Protocol expert Ms. Michele Pollard Patrick, Director of National Protocol Ltd. will lead you through all the do’s and don’ts of a professional meal. You will also learn how to offer appropriate introductions, how to hold a conversation over a meal and the proper way to exchange business cards.

This workshop would be particularly helpful to first and second year graduate students who will be invited to faculty dinners related to guest speakers, to international graduate students, and to advanced graduate students who are soon to go on the job market.

The cost of the lunch and workshop is $5 for graduate Arts & Sciences/VIMS students. Please RSVP via the following link by Friday, October 31st (payment due at the Cohen Career Center by Friday, November 1st).

VIMS' AFTER HOURS LECTURE- OCEAN PLASTICS: BIG AND SMALL
Thursday, October 24th 2013, 7pm, VIMS - Watermen's Hall, McHugh Auditorium
Join Dr. Kirk Havens of VIMS as he explores pollution by plastics in the ocean, and a potential solution to one part of the problem

Images of floating bottles and other plastic trash from the Pacific's "Great Garbage Patch" have long dismayed ocean lovers around the world. Join Dr. Kirk Havens of the Virginia Institute of Marine Science as he explores the source and fate of these ocean plastics, both the large items that catch public attention and the floating soup of "microplastics" that may actually pose a greater threat to ocean and human health. Havens directs the Marine Debris program at VIMS and is working with colleagues to develop and test a biodegradable replacement for one of the two main sources of microplastic—the "microbeads" found in scores of household products.

Havens' presentation is the October installment of the 2013 After Hours Lecture Series at the Virginia Institute of Marine Science.

Reservations to this free public lecture series are required due to limited space. Register to attend in person or call 804-684-7846; or email programs@vims.edu for further information. Register to view the online webinar. http://www.vims.edu/public/afterhours/index.php

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Continuing students in Graduate Studies, Arts and Sciences can begin online registration TODAY. In order for E-bills to be as accurate as possible, students must register no later than December 6.

October 28 – November 8
Spring priority registration for continuing students

November 9 – December 6
Spring schedule adjustment/registration for continuing students

Reminder – Students who are Virginia residents but have not submitted the “Application for Virginia In-state Tuition Privileges” http://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/documents/tuition/Domicile_Application.pdf must do so prior to registering for classes or you will be charged tuition at the out-of-state rate. Students currently classified as out-of-state may also submit this form to the Registrar’s office if you believe you may now be eligible for in-state classification.

Registration after December 6 creates a number of problems for students and campus offices, including the following: (1) Students who intend to be full-time but are not registered full-time by December 6 might not be listed as being eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan at the beginning of the semester. (2) The Financial Aid office will not apply a full tuition waiver to an eligible student's account until after the student has registered full-time. Therefore, a student who registers late may receive an E-bill for tuition before the Financial Aid office has applied the waiver to the account. (3) Eligible students who are not preregistered by December 6 will probably not receive an out-of-state to in-state tuition waiver from the Financial Aid office before E-bills are sent in mid-December, and are therefore likely to see an out-of-state tuition charge on their December or January E-bill when they finally register for the spring 2014 semester. The College has instituted late charges on unpaid student bills, including tuition bills that are incorrect as a result of the student’s failure to register prior to December 6.

COHEN CAREER CENTER ETIQUETTE LUNCH
The Cohen Career Center and the Office of Graduate Studies and Research cordially invites you to attend an "Etiquette Lunch" on Friday, November 8 at 12:30 PM. Protocol expert Ms. Michele Pollard Patrick, Director of National Protocol Ltd. will lead you through all the do's and don'ts of a professional meal. You will also learn how to offer appropriate introductions, how to hold a conversation over a meal and the proper way to exchange business cards.
This workshop would be particularly helpful to first and second year graduate students who will be invited to faculty dinners related to guest speakers, to international graduate students, and to advanced graduate students who are soon to go on the job market.
The cost of the lunch and workshop is $5 for graduate Arts & Sciences/VIMS students. Please RSVP via the following link by Friday, October 31st (payment due at the Cohen Career Center by Friday, November 1st).

IN-PERSON - Date: Monday, October 28, Time: 9-11AM, Location: Tidewater A, Register: /forms.wm.edu/12114
ONLINE: training.newmedia.m/w/cwilliamandmary/
All employees are encouraged to participate in one of the forms of training.

CLASSROOM FLIPPING FOR BEGINNERS: HOW-TO SUGGESTIONS, SIMPLE TRIALS, AND FREED CLASS TIME
Paul Heideman, Professor of Biology
Tuesday, October 29, 2013, 12:30-1:30, Blow 201
In this workshop, participants will plan how to flip some student learning to out-of-class time, using the in-class time for something such as problem-solving sessions. Each participant will develop a plan to flip one class meeting. The instructor (a nervous newcomer to flipping) will demonstrate. Our planning will include: (1) Choosing what to move out of class, (2) Deciding what might be useful problem-solving activities or other in-class time, (3) Preliminary planning to develop materials, (4) assessing the time it will require, and (5) is the effort is worth the potential gains.
Lunch will be served. If you would like to attend, please rsvp to Joel Schwartz, at jxschw@wm.edu.

PHYSICAL STANDARDS FOR THESES & DISSERTATIONS
The Physical Standards provides a set of general standards for the preparation of theses and dissertations for graduate degrees in Arts & Sciences. Before you begin the final formatting of your thesis or dissertation, please carefully review the Physical Standards and consult with your program for additional specific style guidelines.

It is your responsibility to review the entire document to make sure you are in compliance with the Physical Standards. It is required that students submit one complete draft of their thesis/dissertation for review of format by the OGSR 3 weeks prior to the published deadline before submitting the final copies. For January 2014 graduation, the draft deadline is November 15, 2013. The OGSR prefers to receive this required draft by electronic copy to apgrad@wm.edu
http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresource/physicalstandards/index.php

DID YOU KNOW THAT? The newsletter for Graduate Students in Arts & Sciences is published each week during the fall and spring semesters. We welcome your submissions. Copy may be edited for length. Submission should be sent to vthompson@wm.edu.

GRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

Abstract Submission Deadline: NOVEMBER 15, 2013

The Arts & Sciences Graduate Student Association of The College of William and Mary invites all Arts & Sciences graduate students to submit abstracts for the 13th Annual Graduate Research Symposium, to be held March 21 & 22, 2014. The broadly themed conference is designed to bring together Arts & Sciences graduate students from differing areas of study and from all stages of the degree process. The congenial setting and professionally-oriented environment provide an opportunity for students to explain and discuss their research, while fostering community relationships across discipline boundaries. Abstracts of 250 words (1700 characters) are requested for the following categories of submission:

- ORAL PRESENTATIONS: Disciplines in the Natural and Computational Sciences will have 12 minutes to present with 3 minutes for questions and disciplines in the Humanities and Social Sciences will have 15 minutes to present with 5 minutes for questions.

- POSTER PRESENTATIONS: Presenters are asked to be available for about one hour to discuss their work with symposium attendees. Size of posters must be limited to dimensions of no larger than 48” x 48”.

To submit an abstract, please visit http://web.wm.edu/grs/ and follow the instructions on the form. All accepted abstracts will be printed in the symposium program available at the event. Submission of an abstract implies a commitment to present your research at the 2014 Graduate Research Symposium. Therefore, please make sure that you understand all of the requirements before submitting an abstract. Please contact the Symposium Committee if you have a question. All accepted presenters will be notified by the Graduate Research Symposium Committee in mid-December 2013. Over $5,500 in anticipated awards will be made to presenters in several categories.

A Newsletter for Graduate Students in Arts & Sciences

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Continuing students in Graduate Studies, Arts and Sciences began online registration October 28. In order for E-bills to be as accurate as possible, students must register no later than December 6.

October 28 – November 8
Spring priority registration for continuing students

November 9 – December 6
Spring schedule adjustment/registration for continuing students

Reminder – Students who are Virginia residents but have not submitted the “Application for Virginia In-state Tuition Privileges” http://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/documents/tuition/Domicile_Application.pdf must do so prior to registering for classes or you will be charged tuition at the out-of-state rate. Students currently classified as out-of-state may also submit this form to the Registrar’s office if you believe you may now be eligible for in-state classification.

Registration after December 6 creates a number of problems for students and campus offices, including the following: (1) Students who intend to be full-time but are not registered full-time by December 6 might not be listed as being eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan at the beginning of the semester. (2) The Financial Aid office will not apply a full tuition waiver to an eligible student’s account until after the student has registered full-time. Therefore, a student who registers late may receive an E-bill for tuition before the Financial Aid office has applied the waiver to the account. (3) Eligible students who are not preregistered by December 6 will probably not receive an out-of-state tuition waiver from the Financial Aid office before E-bills are sent in mid-December, and are therefore likely to see an out-of-state tuition charge on their December or January E-bill when they finally register for the spring 2014 semester. The College has instituted late charges on unpaid student bills, including tuition bills that are incorrect as a result of the student’s failure to register prior to December 6.

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING

A&S GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support (maximum of $300) from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities.

Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the OGSR are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority.

2013-2014 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in February and one in April). Applications for Spring 2014 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on February 14, 2014, and will cover expenses incurred January 1 through April 15, 2014. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student’s faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the GSA Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.
GSA SUPPLEMENTAL CONFERENCE TRAVEL FUNDING. Through a collaborative effort between the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) and the GSA, a limited number of awards are available to assist selected Arts & Sciences graduate students who are attending or presenting at a research conference. Beginning in Spring 2014, Conference travel awards will be increased to the following: $400 for an invited presentation, $300 for accepted presenter (speaker or poster) and $200 to attend a conference. The OGSR/GSA Conference Funding competitively awards Arts & Sciences graduate students who wish to attend or present at research conferences in their field of study. Conference Funding is financed through the Office of Graduate Studies and Research; however, it is solely administered by the GSA. The goal of Conference Funding is to supplement other funding sources and to help offset the expenses that graduate students accrue advancing their scholarship and knowledge. Since conference experience and attendance are critical for the job market, Conference Funding is designed to encourage graduate student presence at conferences by addressing some of the limitations of other funding sources. The application deadline for conference travel taken during the period January 1, 2014 through April 15, 2014 is 5:00pm on January 31, 2014. For more information and the application, please see http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE MENTORING. In the spring of 2009, the A&S Graduate Studies Advisory Board and the A&S Committee on Graduate Studies voted unanimously in support of the Board’s concept for initiating and funding these annual awards to A&S graduate students in recognition of outstanding undergraduate mentoring in scholarship and research outside of classroom teaching. A total of 16, $250 awards have been presented at the Symposium since 2010. Unlike the Teaching Assistant awards that are currently offered within some departments/programs, this award recognizes mentoring in the context of undergraduate scholarship and research outside of classroom teaching. Such mentoring might include, among other examples, graduate students who mentor undergraduates in the context of the undergraduate students’ senior theses, honors theses, writing projects, term papers, or research in a laboratory, field site, museum, or archive. The 2013-2014 awards will be presented at the 2014 Graduate Research Symposium’s awards luncheon on March 22, 2014, drawing more undergraduate students and faculty to the symposium and luncheon and increasing visibility for the important contributions of graduate students in mentoring undergraduate students in scholarship and research. Guidelines and a nomination form http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/gradadvisoryboard/undergradmentor/index.php are available for undergraduate students and faculty, who are invited to nominate current graduate students. The deadline is January 31, 2014 at 11:59 p.m. E.S.T, for receipt of a complete nomination consisting of a nomination form from a current or past W&M undergraduate student AND a second nomination form from a current or past W&M faculty member.

OSSI -- SUMMER 2014 OPPORTUNITIES
The NASA One Stop Shopping Initiative, or OSSI, strives to provide high school students and undergraduate and graduate students at all institutions of higher education access to a portfolio of internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities offered by NASA mission directorates and centers. Visit the Office of Education Infrastructure Division LaunchPad to find information on internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities. The site features the OSSI online application for recruiting NASA Interns, Fellows and Scholars, or NIFS. This innovative system allows students to search and apply for all types of higher-education NASA internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities in one location. A single application places the student in the applicant pool for consideration by all NASA mentors.

Applications for summer 2014 opportunities are due March 1, 2014.

To find available opportunities and to fill out an OSSI online application for recruiting NIFS, visit https://intern.nasa.gov/index.html.

Inquiries about the OSSI should be submitted via https://intern.nasa.gov/oic/.
Important information on W&M health care and insurance eligibility for 2013-2014

Students who want to be eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan and for use of the Student Health Center in 2013-2014 should be sure to understand this information and review the information on the Student Health Center website. The 2013-2014 annual student premium is $1,541 ($709 for the fall coverage period and $832 for the Spring/Summer coverage period). It is the student’s responsibility to verify whether or not the Health Insurance Policy charge has been billed to your student account correctly. If there is a billing error, you should contact the Student Insurance Coordinator immediately. Students who want more information can contact the Student Insurance Coordinator (trsike@wm.edu) after reviewing the information provided at http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/plan/index.php

Students admitted Fall 2006 or after and who register full-time or with Research Graduate status, and all F-1 and J-1 international students, will be enrolled in the College-endorsed Student Insurance Plan and the cost will be billed to their student account in two installments (fall and spring semester) UNLESS proof of other adequate health insurance coverage is provided by submitting a waiver request by the posted deadline each academic year and the waiver request is approved. Waiver requests submitted after the deadline will be considered at the discretion of the College. The waiver request is available at https://studentcenter.uhcsr.com/wm. For more information review the Insurance page of the Student Health Center website (http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/waiverinfo/index.php). This requirement also applies to students who receive a W&M degree and then continue in a different W&M degree program (i.e., Bachelor’s to Master’s or Master’s to PhD).

STUDENTS WHO WILL BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS

1. If you don’t submit a waiver request by the deadline, you will have the College’s Insurance Policy billed to your student account in two installments (fall and spring semester). You MUST be enrolled at the College with either full-time or Graduate Research statuses BOTH semesters (Fall 2013 & Spring 2014) to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014). There is no option to change or convert your coverage later, so if you think there is a chance you may not be enrolled with full-time or Graduate Research status for the Spring 2014, read the appropriate section below.

2. Full-time or Research Graduate students who are enrolled in either the Annual, Annual in Installments or Spring/Summer coverage will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered during the summer.

STUDENTS WHO MAY NOT BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS

1. If you think you will become a part-time or continuous enrollment student in the Spring 2014 semester and you wish to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014), you MUST actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments) in the Fall 2013 semester. If you enroll in the Annual in Installments or you enroll in the Fall coverage only, you will NOT be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan in the Spring 2014 semester when you become a part-time or continuous enrollment student. There is no option to change or convert your coverage later so you should plan ahead.

2. If you must actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments), you may do so by completing the College Enrollment Request form at https://forms.wm.edu/9618, which authorizes W&M to process your annual enrollment and bill your student account accordingly. You MUST select the Annual coverage period only, not any other coverage period and you will be billed for the entire annual premium in the Fall 2013 semester.
3. If you choose the Annual coverage but you cannot afford to pay the entire premium in the Fall, you will have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments utilizing the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan. You will not have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments unless you utilize the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan.

4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students who enrolled in the Annual coverage in the Fall 2013 semester will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Spring 2014 semester and the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered for the summer.

Important information on W&M Student Health Center eligibility for 2013-2014
All full-time or Research Graduate students are eligible for services at the W&M Student Health Center (SHC). Services offered at the SHC include a variety of primary care medical services (including laboratory testing) and pharmacy services.

1. Full-time students are assessed a Student Health Center fee as part of their tuition and fees during the fall and spring semesters.
2. Research Graduate students will need to make arrangements for the payment of the Student Health Center fee before accessing services during the fall and spring semesters.
3. Full-time or Research Graduate statuses in the spring semester qualifies students for use of the Student Health Center in the summer, with payment of the summer Student Health Center fee, unless the student graduates in May.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students are not eligible for services at the Student Health Center.
5. Students who have the College’s Student Insurance Plan but who are no longer eligible to use the services of the Student Health Center due to a change in student status (part-time, continuous enrollment or graduation), may still use the pharmacy services but may not use the medical services at the SHC.

GRADUATE CENTER PROGRAMS
The Graduate Center, located in the Stetson House at 232 Jamestown Road, offers courses and workshops intended to complement your academic curriculum. Meeting times are chosen to avoid conflicts with your primary academic commitments.

COLL 503 (Section 1): Listening, Speaking & Pronunciation Skills - 25763; Begins January 28, 2014
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Tuesday, 5:00 – 6:50pm, Blow 332
Listening and speaking are inextricably linked. Active listening is a key component to correcting pronunciation errors, and is essential for academic, professional, and personal success. This course is designed for nonnative English speakers who wish to develop their English proficiency. A variety of resources including film, CDs, and the Internet, expose students to different American accents and speech patterns. Recorded assignments provide opportunities for self-assessment and instructor feedback.

COLL 503 (Section 2): Listening, Speaking & Pronunciation Skills - 28805; Begins January 30, 2014
(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Thursday, 7:00 – 8:50 pm, Blow 333

(0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Kristin Maurice, Wednesday, 1100 – 12:20pm, Blow 331
A course for domestic and international students beginning their theses/dissertations. Thesis/dissertation guidelines will be discussed and sample chapters from specific fields will be analyzed. In collaboration with their academic advisor and in consultation with the instructor, students will organize and write individual chapters, simultaneously reviewing and revising their writing.
COLL 550: College Teaching - 29679; Begins January 27, 2014 (0 credit, P/F) Instructors – Heather MacDonald and Sharon Zuber
Monday, 2:00 – 3:20pm, Millington 117
Discussion and exploration of college teaching including general issues in college teaching; various teaching strategies including lectures, discussions, group work, writing assignments; course design, syllabus and test construction, and grading; integrating research and education; and job search and application strategies. Students will develop a portfolio to include sample assignments and a general teaching statement. Readings on teaching and learning and on university education.

Teaching Project workshop:
Oral Presentations
Monday November 18, 12-1, Blow 201
All faculty and graduate students are invited to attend our next Teaching Project workshop. Lunch will be served. If you would like to attend, please RSVP by return email (jxschw@wm.edu) to Joel Schwartz.
In this workshop participants will examine the pros and cons of including student presentations in a class. Why and when are oral presentations useful? What are their objectives? What are their different formats? How can we prepare students beforehand? How do we ensure that the oral presentation is a valuable learning experience for the whole class? How can technology enhance a presentation? How do we evaluate oral work? How do we evaluate collaborative work?

2014 Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Dissertation Fellowship
The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation, through its scholarship and grant making programs, advances the education of exceptionally promising students who have financial need. Our work allows us to see first-hand how high-achieving students with financial need overcome obstacles and excel academically. Our research, however, has shown that many high-potential, low-income students are unable to successfully navigate these obstacles.

In The Achievement Trap (2007), we found that there is a significant drop off in the number of low-income students who are identified as high-achieving throughout the primary and secondary education system. These student experiences raise important questions about the factors and contexts that help some students with financial need overcome personal adversity, limited educational opportunities, and challenging socioeconomic circumstances to excel academically, and how a deeper understanding of such matters can be used to design programs and interventions that will help more low-income students identified as high achieving early in their primary and secondary school years to sustain their academic achievement levels through college and beyond.

In response to this gap in knowledge, the Foundation has created the Cooke Dissertation Fellowship for advanced doctoral students who are completing dissertations that further the understanding of the educational pathways and experiences of exceptionally promising students who have financial need. The fellowship is intended to focus more scholarly attention on the population of students the Foundation serves in order to enable practitioners, parents, schools and communities to better support such students in achieving their full potential.

Dissertation fellowships are intended to support the doctoral student for work done after the student’s dissertation proposal has been successfully defended. Applications are encouraged from a variety of disciplines such as, but not limited to, education, sociology, economics, psychology, statistics, and psychometrics.
Although applicants must be candidates for a doctoral degree at a graduate school in the United States, they need not be US citizens. Please note that the applicants’ graduate study may be in a diverse range of academic disciplines (e.g., policy studies, economics, psychology, education) but their topic must be tied to the Foundation’s mission: advancing the education of exceptionally promising students who have financial need.
The fellowship is a one-time award of up to $25,000, which may be used for a period of not less than nine months and up to 18 months, beginning in June 2014. Award decisions are announced in May. See this link for 2014 timeline. We expect to offer six in 2014.
Eligible applicants must have completed all pre-dissertation requirements.
Additional information is available at our website.
Application Deadline: February 4, 2014
GRADUATION FEES

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

The new issue of the Grant Advisor is now available at www.grantadvisor.com/tgaplus/
If you are off-campus, go to www.grantadvisor.com/tgapass/ and enter "tga" (without the quotes) as the username and "prior" as the password.
This publication lists deadlines for grants and fellowship opportunities broken down by the following categories: Fine Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, Education, International, Health Related, Minorities/Women, Unrestricted/Other, Federal Register.

W&M INTERNAL PROGRAMS:

Creative Adaptation Fund, deadline: 12/9/13;
http://www.wm.edu/offices/sponsoredprograms/announcements/creative-adaptation-fund.php:
During the September 2011 Board of Visitors meeting, the Board signaled the necessity for the College to engage in "creative adaptation." In response to this, for the last two years, the Provost has issued a call for innovative cost saving and revenue generating proposals and will again make available $200,000 for FY14 to engage and unleash the creative energy in the academic areas to develop creative adaptations that improve the quality of our educational programs either directly or indirectly, by reducing costs or generating new revenues and thereby providing funds that can be reinvested in people and programs.

Community of Scholars Fund, no deadline;
http://www.wm.edu/as/charlescenter/scholars/communityfund/index.php:
Mini-grants from the Community of Scholars Fund are available to faculty, staff, and students to encourage intellectual interaction between faculty and students outside the classroom. Possible uses for this funding include book or film discussion groups; or trips to lectures, museums, performances, laboratories, or field sites, including associated travel and/or meal expenses.

Faculty Fellows, Center for Liberal Arts, deadline: 12/15/13;
http://www.wm.edu/as/dean/center_liberal_arts/call_for_apps/index.php:
The CLA is a home for aspirational curriculum development and a source of continual quality enhancement for the general education curriculum. Each CLA Fellow will also design and teach one new course in the general education curriculum.

2014 Faculty Funding, Reves Center, deadline: 12/13/13;
http://www.wm.edu/offices/revescenter/funding/facultyfunding/index.php.
The Reves Faculty Fellows program supports faculty and their students engaged in international collaborative research and community engagement. The program is designed to encourage proposals from W&M faculty with significant experience in the international arena as well as those seeking to expand the focus of their work to include international, global, and/or transnational approaches.

ARTS & HUMANITIES:

*Haverford seeks scholars interested in discourses of time, revision and reconciliation. Area of specialization is open, but might include philosophy, history, political science, anthropology, literature, history of art, music, sociology and cultural studies, among other possibilities. Scholars with broad historical and interdisciplinary interests are encouraged to apply. Women and members of underrepresented minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

A Newsletter for Graduate Students in Arts & Sciences

application deadline February 10, 2014.
W&M graduate students have been very successful in receiving these research fellowships of $5,000. During the past four years, sixteen W&M A&S graduate students have received new $5,000 research fellowships and ten W&M A&S grad students have received $5,000 renewals. Students must be U.S. citizens and can be pursuing any field of study with aerospace relevance (STEM fields as well as social science fields). The term "aerospace" is interpreted very broadly, although the application must explain the aerospace relevance of the proposed research. If you have questions about these fellowships, please e-mail Dean Virginia Torczon (vitorc@wm.edu). More information about Virginia Space Grant Consortium can be found at http://www.vsgc.odu.edu. Application for 2014-15 Graduate STEM Research Fellowship Program can be found at http://www.vsgc.odu.edu/sf/gradfellow/.

NEWS AND INFORMATION
Continuing students in Graduate Studies, Arts and Sciences began online registration October 28. In order for E-bills to be as accurate as possible, students must register no later than December 6.

October 28 – November 8
Spring priority registration for continuing students

November 9 – December 6
Spring schedule adjustment/registration for continuing students

Reminder – Students who are Virginia residents but have not submitted the "Application for Virginia In-state Tuition Privileges" http://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/documents/tuition/Domicile_Application.pdf must do so prior to registering for classes or you will be charged tuition at the out-of-state rate. Students currently classified as out-of-state may also submit this form to the Registrar’s office if you believe you may now be eligible for in-state classification.

Registration after December 6 creates a number of problems for students and campus offices, including the following: (1) Students who intend to be full-time but are not registered full-time by December 6 might not be listed as being eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan at the beginning of the semester. (2) The Financial Aid office will not apply a full tuition waiver to an eligible student’s account until after the student has registered full-time. Therefore, a student who registers late may receive an E-bill for tuition before the Financial Aid office has applied the waiver to the account. (3) Eligible students who are not preregistered by December 6 will probably not receive an out-of-state to in-state tuition waiver from the Financial Aid office before E-bills are sent in mid-December, and are therefore likely to see an out-of-state tuition charge on their December or January E-bill when they finally register for the spring 2014 semester. The College has instituted late charges on unpaid student bills, including tuition bills that are incorrect as a result of the student’s failure to register prior to December 6.

NON-TRADITIONAL CAREERS IN THE SCIENCES WITH ROBERT SAUNDERS
December 2, 2013, 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm
Cohen Career Center: Presentation Room A&B
RSVP Today!

Please join us for a talk to learn about non-traditional career paths. Robert Saunders will talk about his experiences and answer questions about starting your career. Rob Saunders is a W&M alumni and member of the Graduate Studies Advisory Board. As someone who is pursuing a non-academic career path with his doctorate, he volunteered to share his experiences and provide his insights to those of you who want to consider alternate career options. You can find a brief bio for Rob on the Graduate Studies Advisory Board web page: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/gradadvisoryboard/index.php

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING

A&S GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support [maximum of $300] from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities. Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the OGSR are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority. 2013-2014 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in February and one in April). Applications for Spring 2014 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on February 14, 2014, and will cover expenses incurred January 1 through April 15, 2014. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student’s faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the GSA Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.
GSA SUPPLEMENTAL CONFERENCE TRAVEL FUNDING. Through a collaborative effort between the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) and the GSA, a limited number of awards are available to assist selected Arts & Sciences graduate students who are attending or presenting at a research conference. Beginning in Spring 2014, Conference travel awards will be increased to the following: $400 for an invited presentation, $300 for accepted presenter (speaker or poster) and $200 to attend a conference. The OGSR/GSA Conference Funding competitively awards Arts & Sciences graduate students who wish to attend or present at research conferences in their field of study. Conference Funding is financed through the Office of Graduate Studies and Research; however, it is solely administered by the GSA. The goal of Conference Funding is to supplement other funding sources and to help offset the expenses that graduate students accrue advancing their scholarship and knowledge. Since conference experience and attendance are critical for the job market, Conference Funding is designed to encourage graduate student presence at conferences by addressing some of the limitations of other funding sources. The application deadline for conference travel taken during the period January 1, 2014 through April 15, 2014 is 5:00pm on January 31, 2014. For more information and the application, please see http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES CONFERENCE FUNDING Conference funding is available to full-time graduate and undergraduate students at the College to assist with travel to conferences off campus. Applications must be received in the office of the Student Activities Accountant no later than 4:00 p.m. on December 4, 2013 for travel between Jan 1 - March 31, 2014. For applications and further information see http://www.wm.edu/offices/studentleadershipdevelopment/funding/conferences/index.php

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE MENTORING.

In the spring of 2009, the A&S Graduate Studies Advisory Board and the A&S Committee on Graduate Studies voted unanimously in support of the Board’s concept for initiating and funding these annual awards to A&S graduate students in recognition of outstanding undergraduate mentoring in scholarship and research outside of classroom teaching. A total of 16, $250 awards have been presented at the Symposium since 2010. Unlike the Teaching Assistant awards that are currently offered within some departments/programs, this award recognizes mentoring in the context of undergraduate scholarship and research outside of classroom teaching. Such mentoring might include, among other examples, graduate students who mentor undergraduates in the context of the undergraduate students’ senior theses, honors theses, writing projects, term papers, or research in a laboratory, field site, museum, or archive. The 2013-2014 awards will be presented at the 2014 Graduate Research Symposium's awards luncheon on March 22, 2014, drawing more undergraduate students and faculty to the symposium and luncheon and increasing visibility for the important contributions of graduate students in mentoring undergraduate students in scholarship and research. Guidelines and a nomination form http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/gradadvisoryboard/undergradmentor/index.php are available for undergraduate students and faculty, who are invited to nominate current graduate students. The deadline is January 31, 2014 at 11:59 p.m. E.S.T, for receipt of a complete nomination consisting of a nomination form from a current or past W&M undergraduate student AND a second nomination form from a current or past W&M faculty member.
OSSI -- SUMMER 2014 OPPORTUNITIES

The NASA One Stop Shopping Initiative, or OSSI, strives to provide high school students and undergraduate and graduate students at all institutions of higher education access to a portfolio of internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities offered by NASA mission directorates and centers.

Visit the Office of Education Infrastructure Division LaunchPad to find information on internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities. The site features the OSSI online application for recruiting NASA Interns, Fellows and Scholars, or NIFS. This innovative system allows students to search and apply for all types of higher-education NASA internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities in one location. A single application places the student in the applicant pool for consideration by all NASA mentors.

Applications for summer 2014 opportunities are due March 1, 2014.

To find available opportunities and to fill out an OSSI online application for recruiting NIFS, visit https://intern.nasa.gov/index.html.

Inquiries about the OSSI should be submitted via https://intern.nasa.gov/oic/.

Important information on W&M health care and insurance eligibility for 2013-2014

Students who want to be eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan and for use of the Student Health Center in 2013-2014 should be sure to understand this information and review the information on the Student Health Center website. The 2013-2014 annual student premium is $1,541 ($709 for the fall coverage period and $832 for the Spring/Summer coverage period. It is the student’s responsibility to verify whether or not the Health Insurance Policy charge has been billed to your student account correctly. If there is a billing error, you should contact the Student Insurance Coordinator immediately. Students who want more information can contact the Student Insurance Coordinator (trsike@wm.edu) after reviewing the information provided at http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/plan/index.php

Students admitted Fall 2006 or after and who register full-time or with Research Graduate status, and all F-1 and J-1 international students, will be enrolled in the College-endorsed Student Insurance Plan and the cost will be billed to their student account in two installments (fall and spring semester) UNLESS proof of other adequate health insurance coverage is provided by submitting a waiver request by the posted deadline each academic year and the waiver request is approved. Waiver requests submitted after the deadline will be considered at the discretion of the College. The waiver request is available at https://studentcenter.uhcsr.com/wm. For more information review the Insurance page of the Student Health Center website (http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/waiverinfo/index.php). This requirement also applies to students who receive a W&M degree and then continue in a different W&M degree program (i.e., Bachelor’s to Master’s or Master’s to PhD).

STUDENTS WHO WILL BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS

1. If you don’t submit a waiver request by the deadline, you will have the College’s Insurance Policy billed to your student account in two installments (fall and spring semester). You MUST be enrolled at the College with either full-time or Graduate Research statuses BOTH semesters (Fall 2013 & Spring 2014) to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014). There is no option to change or convert your coverage later, so if you think there is a chance you may not be enrolled with full-time or Graduate Research status for the Spring 2014, read the appropriate section below.

2. Full-time or Research Graduate students who are enrolled in either the Annual, Annual in Installments or Spring/Summer coverage will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered during the summer.

STUDENTS WHO MAY NOT BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS.

1. If you think you will become a part-time or continuous enrollment student in the Spring 2014 semester and you wish to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014), you MUST actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments) in the Fall 2013 semester. If you enroll in the Annual in Installments or you enroll in the Fall coverage only, you will NOT be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan in the Spring 2014 semester when you become a part-time or continuous enrollment student. There is no option to change or convert your coverage later so you should plan ahead.

2. If you must actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments), you may do so by completing the College Enrollment Request form at https://forms.wm.edu/9618, which authorizes W&M to process your annual enrollment and bill your student account accordingly. You MUST select the Annual coverage period only, not any other coverage period and you will be billed for the entire annual premium in the Fall 2013 semester.

3. If you choose the Annual coverage but you cannot afford to pay the entire premium in the Fall, you will have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments utilizing the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan. You will not have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments unless you utilize the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan, http://www.wm.edu/offices/financialoperations/sa/eservices/paymentplan/index.php.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students who enrolled in the Annual coverage in the Fall 2013 semester will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Spring 2014 semester and the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered for the summer.

Important information on W&M Student Health Center eligibility for 2013-2014
All full-time or Research Graduate students are eligible for services at the W&M Student Health Center (SHC). Services offered at the SHC include a variety of primary care medical services (including laboratory testing) and pharmacy services.

1. Full-time students are assessed a Student Health Center fee as part of their tuition and fees during the fall and spring semesters.
2. Research Graduate students will need to make arrangements for the payment of the Student Health Center fee before accessing services during the fall and spring semesters.
3. Full-time or Research Graduate statuses in the spring semester qualifies students for use of the Student Health Center in the summer, with payment of the summer Student Health Center fee, unless the student graduates in May.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students are not eligible for services at the Student Health Center.
5. Students who have the College’s Student Insurance Plan but who are no longer eligible to use the services of the Student Health Center due to a change in student status (part-time, continuous enrollment or graduation), may still use the pharmacy services but may not use the medical services at the SHC.

GRADUATE CENTER PROGRAMS
The Graduate Center, located in the Stetson House at 232 Jamestown Road, offers courses and workshops intended to complement your academic curriculum. Meeting times are chosen to avoid conflicts with your primary academic commitments.

Discussion and exploration of college teaching including general issues in college teaching; various teaching strategies including lectures, discussions, group work, writing assignments; course design, syllabus and test construction, and grading; integrating research and education; and job search and application strategies. Students will develop a portfolio to include sample assignments and a general teaching statement. Readings on teaching and learning and on university education.
2014 Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Dissertation Fellowship

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation, through its scholarship and grant making programs, advances the education of exceptionally promising students who have financial need. Our work allows us to see first-hand how high-achieving students with financial need overcome obstacles and excel academically. Our research, however, has shown that many high-potential, low-income students are unable to successfully navigate these obstacles.

In The Achievement Trap (2007), we found that there is a significant drop off in the number of low-income students who are identified as high-achieving throughout the primary and secondary education system. These student experiences raise important questions about the factors and contexts that help some students with financial need overcome personal adversity, limited educational opportunities, and challenging socioeconomic circumstances to excel academically, and how a deeper understanding of such matters can be used to design programs and interventions that will help more low-income students identified as high achieving early in their primary and secondary school years to sustain their academic achievement levels through college and beyond.

In response to this gap in knowledge, the Foundation has created the Cooke Dissertation Fellowship for advanced doctoral students who are completing dissertations that further the understanding of the educational pathways and experiences of exceptionally promising students who have financial need. The fellowship is intended to focus more scholarly attention on the population of students the Foundation serves in order to enable practitioners, parents, schools and communities to better support such students in achieving their full potential.

Dissertation fellowships are intended to support the doctoral student for work done after the student’s dissertation proposal has been successfully defended. Applications are encouraged from a variety of disciplines such as, but not limited to, education, sociology, economics, psychology, statistics, and psychometrics. Although applicants must be candidates for a doctoral degree at a graduate school in the United States, they need not be US citizens. Please note that the applicants’ graduate study may be in a diverse range of academic disciplines (e.g., policy studies, economics, psychology, education) but their topic must be tied to the Foundation’s mission: advancing the education of exceptionally promising students who have financial need.

The fellowship is a one-time award of up to $25,000, which may be used for a period of not less than nine months and up to 18 months, beginning in June 2014. Award decisions are announced in May. See this link for 2014 timeline. We expect to offer six in 2014.

Eligible applicants must have completed all pre-dissertation requirements.

Additional information is available at our website.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

The new issue of the Grant Advisor is now available at www.grantadvisor.com/tgaplus/
If you are off-campus, go to www.grantadvisor.com/tgapass/ and enter "tga" (without the quotes) as the username and "prior" as the password.
This publication lists deadlines for grants and fellowship opportunities broken down by the following categories: Fine Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Sciences, Education, International, Health Related, Minorities/Women, Unrestricted/Other, Federal Register.

W&M INTERNAL PROGRAMS:

Creative Adaptation Fund, deadline: 12/9/13; http://www.wm.edu/offices/sponsoredprograms/announcements/creative-adaptation-fund.php:
During the September 2011 Board of Visitors meeting, the Board signaled the necessity for the College to engage in "creative adaptation."
In response to this, for the last two years, the Provost has issued a call for innovative cost saving and revenue generating proposals and will again make available $200,000 for FY14 to engage and unleash the creative energy in the academic areas to develop creative adaptations that improve the quality of our educational programs either directly or indirectly, by reducing costs or generating new revenues and thereby providing funds that can be reinvested in people and programs.

Community of Scholars Fund, no deadline; http://www.wm.edu/as/charlescenter/scholars/communityfund/index.php:
Mini-grants from the Community of Scholars Fund are available to faculty, staff, and students to encourage intellectual interaction between faculty and students outside the classroom. Possible uses for this funding include book or film discussion groups; or trips to lectures, museums, performances, laboratories, or field sites, including associated travel and/or meal expenses.

Faculty Fellows, Center for Liberal Arts, deadline: 12/15/13; http://www.wm.edu/as/dean/center_liberal_arts/call_for_apps/index.php.
The CLA is a home for aspirational curriculum development and a source of continual quality enhancement for the general education curriculum. Each CLA Fellow will also design and teach one new course in the general education curriculum.

2014 Faculty Funding, Reves Center, deadline: 12/13/13; http://www.wm.edu/offices/revescenter/funding/facultyfunding/index.php.
The Reves Faculty Fellows program supports faculty and their students engaged in international collaborative research and community engagement. The program is designed to encourage proposals from W&M faculty with significant experience in the international arena as well as those seeking to expand the focus of their work to include international, global, and/or transnational approaches.

ARTS & HUMANITIES:

*Haverford seeks scholars interested in discourses of time, revision and reconciliation. Area of specialization is open, but might include philosophy, history, political science, anthropology, literature, history of art, music, sociology and cultural studies, among other possibilities. Scholars with broad historical and interdisciplinary interests are encouraged to apply. Women and members of underrepresented minority groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

DID YOU KNOW THAT?
A Newsletter for Graduate Students in Arts & Sciences

Best Wishes for a Joyous and Peaceful Holiday Season

This is the last edition of DID YOU KNOW THAT? for 2013.
We will resume publication on January 13, 2014.

VIRGINIA SPACE GRANT CONSORTIUM GRADUATE RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS, application deadline February 10, 2014.

W&M graduate students have been very successful in receiving these research fellowships of $5000. During the past four years, sixteen W&M A&S graduate students have received new $5,000 research fellowships and ten W&M A&S grad students have received $5,000 renewals. Students must be U.S. citizens and can be pursuing any field of study with aerospace relevance (STEM fields as well as social science fields). The term "aerospace" is interpreted very broadly, although the application must explain the aerospace relevance of the proposed research. If you have questions about these fellowships, please e-mail Dean Virginia Torczon (vjtorc@wm.edu). More information about Virginia Space Grant Consortium can be found at http://www.vsgc.odu.edu. Application for 2014-15 Graduate STEM Research Fellowship Program can be found at http://www.vsgc.odu.edu/sf/gradfellow/

NEWS AND INFORMATION

Continuing students in Graduate Studies, Arts and Sciences began online registration October 28. In order for E-bills to be as accurate as possible, students must register no later than December 6.

October 28 – November 8
Spring priority registration for continuing students

November 9 – December 6
Spring schedule adjustment/registration for continuing students

Reminder – Students who are Virginia residents but have not submitted the “Application for Virginia In-state Tuition Privileges” http://www.wm.edu/offices/registrar/documents/tuition/Domicile_Application.pdf must do so prior to registering for classes or you will be charged tuition at the out-of-state rate. Students currently classified as out-of-state may also submit this form to the Registrar’s office if you believe you may now be eligible for in-state classification.
Registration after December 6 creates a number of problems for students and campus offices, including the following: (1) Students who intend to be full-time but are not registered full-time by December 6 might not be listed as being eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan at the beginning of the semester. (2) The Financial Aid office will not apply a full tuition waiver to an eligible student’s account until after the student has registered full-time. Therefore, a student who registers late may receive an E-bill for tuition before the Financial Aid office has applied the waiver to the account. (3) Eligible students who are not preregistered by December 6 will probably not receive an out-of-state to in-state tuition waiver from the Financial Aid office before E-bills are sent in mid-December, and are therefore likely to see an out-of-state tuition charge on their December or January E-bill when they finally register for the spring 2014 semester. The College has instituted late charges on unpaid student bills, including tuition bills that are incorrect as a result of the student’s failure to register prior to December 6.

NON-TRADITIONAL CAREERS IN THE SCIENCES WITH ROBERT SAUNDERS TODAY

December 2, 2013, 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm
Cohen Career Center: Presentation Room A&B
RSVP Today!

Please join us for a talk to learn about non-traditional career paths. Robert Saunders will talk about his experiences and answer questions about starting your career. Rob Saunders is a W&M alumni and member of the Graduate Studies Advisory Board. As someone who is pursuing a non-academic career path with his doctorate, he volunteered to share his experiences and provide his insights to those of you who want to consider alternate career options. You can find a brief bio for Rob on the Graduate Studies Advisory Board web page: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/gradadvisoryboard/index.php

RESEARCH & TRAVEL FUNDING

A&S GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS. A&S Graduate students are encouraged to apply for support [maximum of $300] from the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) that will allow them to collect data at museums or archives, conduct research, and travel to field work sites. The purpose of the support is to enhance the graduate students’ professional preparation. Not all applicants will receive funding or full funding; therefore, students are encouraged to apply for additional aid or matching funds from other sources and to indicate this information on their applications. Such information will be viewed favorably in the evaluation process. Funding will be limited to direct research related activities. Eligibility: Any graduate student actively enrolled in a graduate program of Arts & Sciences, and who is in good academic standing may apply. Students who have previously received a Graduate Student Research Grant from the OGSR are eligible to apply, but applications from students who have received fewer OGSR Graduate Student Research Grants recently will be given higher funding priority.

2013-2014 GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH GRANTS Application Procedure: There will be three opportunities to apply (one in October, one in February and one in April). Applications for Spring 2014 must be received in the Office of Graduate Studies and Research by 4:00 p.m. on February 14, 2014, and will cover expenses incurred January 1 through April 15, 2014. Late applications will not be accepted. Applications must be signed by the student’s faculty advisor, and must also include a signed Institutional Compliance Form. Guidelines and an application can be found at: http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/studentresources/researchgrants/index.php. Students seeking funding for conference travel should not apply to this program, but should see application guidelines for the GSA Supplemental Conference Travel funds at http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

GSA SUPPLEMENTAL CONFERENCE TRAVEL FUNDING. Through a collaborative effort between the Office of Graduate Studies and Research (OGSR) and the GSA, a limited number of awards are available to assist selected Arts & Sciences graduate students who are attending or presenting at a research conference. Beginning in Spring 2014, Conference travel awards will be increased to the following: $400 for an invited presentation, $300 for accepted presenter (speaker or poster) and $200 to attend a conference. The OGSR/GSA Conference Funding competitively awards Arts & Sciences graduate students who wish to attend or present at research conferences in their field of study. Conference Funding is financed through the Office of Graduate Studies and Research; however, it is solely administered by the GSA. The goal of Conference Funding is to supplement other funding sources and to help offset the expenses that graduate students accrue advancing their scholarship and knowledge. Since conference experience and attendance are critical for the job market, Conference Funding is designed to encourage graduate student presence at conferences by addressing some of the limitations of other funding sources. The application deadline for conference travel taken during the period January 1, 2014 through April 15, 2014 is 5:00pm on January 31, 2014. For more information and the application, please see http://wmpeople.wm.edu/site/page/gsa/conferencefunding.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES CONFERENCE FUNDING Conference funding is available to full-time graduate and undergraduate students at the College to assist with travel to conferences off campus. Applications must be received in the office of the Student Activities Accountant no later than 4:00 p.m. on December 4, 2013 for travel between Jan 1 - March 31, 2014. For applications and further information see http://www.wm.edu/offices/studentleadershipdevelopment/funding/conferences/index.php.
NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN UNDERGRADUATE MENTORING. In the spring of 2009, the A&S Graduate Studies Advisory Board and the A&S Committee on Graduate Studies voted unanimously in support of the Board's concept for initiating and funding these annual awards to A&S graduate students in recognition of outstanding undergraduate mentoring in scholarship and research outside of classroom teaching. A total of 16, $250 awards have been presented at the Symposium since 2010. Unlike the Teaching Assistant awards that are currently offered within some departments/programs, this award recognizes mentoring in the context of undergraduate scholarship and research outside of classroom teaching. Such mentoring might include, among other examples, graduate students who mentor undergraduates in the context of the undergraduate students' senior theses, honors theses, writing projects, term papers, or research in a laboratory, field site, museum, or archive. The 2013-2014 awards will be presented at the 2014 Graduate Research Symposium's awards luncheon on March 22, 2014, drawing more undergraduate students and faculty to the symposium and luncheon and increasing visibility for the important contributions of graduate students in mentoring undergraduate students in scholarship and research. Guidelines and a nomination form http://www.wm.edu/as/graduate/gradadvisoryboard/undergradmentor/index.php are available for undergraduate students and faculty, who are invited to nominate current graduate students. The deadline is January 31, 2014 at 11:59 p.m. E.S.T, for receipt of a complete nomination consisting of a nomination form from a current or past W&M undergraduate student AND a second nomination form from a current or past W&M faculty member.

OSSI -- SUMMER 2014 OPPORTUNITIES

The NASA One Stop Shopping Initiative, or OSSI, strives to provide high school students and undergraduate and graduate students at all institutions of higher education access to a portfolio of internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities offered by NASA mission directorates and centers. Visit the Office of Education Infrastructure Division LaunchPad to find information on internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities. The site features the OSSI online application for recruiting NASA Interns, Fellows and Scholars, or NIFS. This innovative system allows students to search and apply for all types of higher-education NASA internship, fellowship and scholarship opportunities in one location. A single application places the student in the applicant pool for consideration by all NASA mentors.

Applications for summer 2014 opportunities are due March 1, 2014.

To find available opportunities and to fill out an OSSI online application for recruiting NIFS, visit https://intern.nasa.gov/index.html.

Inquiries about the OSSI should be submitted via https://intern.nasa.gov/oic/.
Important information on W&M health care and insurance eligibility for 2013-2014

Students who want to be eligible for the College Student Insurance Plan and for use of the Student Health Center in 2013-2014 should be sure to understand this information and review the information on the Student Health Center website. The 2013-2014 annual student premium is $1,541 ($709 for the fall coverage period and $832 for the Spring/Summer coverage period). It is the student’s responsibility to verify whether or not the Health Insurance Policy charge has been billed to your student account correctly. If there is a billing error, you should contact the Student Insurance Coordinator immediately. Students who want more information can contact the Student Insurance Coordinator (trsike@wm.edu) after reviewing the information provided at http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/plan/index.php

Students admitted Fall 2006 or after and who register full-time or with Research Graduate status, and all F-1 and J-1 international students, will be enrolled in the College-endorsed Student Insurance Plan and the cost will be billed to their student account in two installments (fall and spring semester) UNLESS proof of other adequate health insurance coverage is provided by submitting a waiver request by the posted deadline each academic year and the waiver request is approved. Waiver requests submitted after the deadline will be considered at the discretion of the College. The waiver request is available at https://studentcenter.uhcsr.com/wm. For more information review the Insurance page of the Student Health Center website (http://www.wm.edu/offices/healthcenter/studentinsurance/waiverinfo/index.php). This requirement also applies to students who receive a W&M degree and then continue in a different W&M degree program (i.e., Bachelor’s to Master’s or Master’s to PhD).

STUDENTS WHO WILL BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS

1. If you don’t submit a waiver request by the deadline, you will have the College’s Insurance Policy billed to your student account in two installments (fall and spring semester). You MUST be enrolled at the College with either full-time or Graduate Research statuses BOTH semesters (Fall 2013 & Spring 2014) to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014). There is no option to change or convert your coverage later, so if you think there is a chance you may not be enrolled with full-time or Graduate Research status for the Spring 2014, read the appropriate section below.

2. Full-time or Research Graduate students who are enrolled in either the Annual, Annual in Installments or Spring/Summer coverage will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered during the summer.

STUDENTS WHO MAY NOT BE ENROLLED WITH FULL-TIME/GRADUATE RESEARCH STATUS BOTH SEMESTERS.

1. If you think you will become a part-time or continuous enrollment student in the Spring 2014 semester and you wish to maintain your insurance eligibility for the entire policy year (08/01/2013-07/31/2014), you MUST actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments) in the Fall 2013 semester. If you enroll in the Annual in Installments or you enroll in the Fall coverage only, you will NOT be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan in the Spring 2014 semester when you become a part-time or continuous enrollment student. There is no option to change or convert your coverage later so you should plan ahead.

2. If you must actively enroll in the Annual coverage (not Annual in Installments), you may do so by completing the College Enrollment Request form at https://forms.wm.edu/9618, which authorizes W&M to process your annual enrollment and bill your student account accordingly. You MUST select the Annual coverage period only, not any other coverage period and you will be billed for the entire annual premium in the Fall 2013 semester.

3. If you choose the Annual coverage but you cannot afford to pay the entire premium in the Fall, you will have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments utilizing the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan. You will not have the option to pay your insurance premium in installments unless you utilize the College’s eServices Tuition Payment Plan, http://www.wm.edu/offices/financialoperations/sa/eservices/paymentplan/index.php.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students who enrolled in the Annual coverage in the Fall 2013 semester will continue to be eligible for the Student Insurance Plan during the Spring 2014 semester and the Summer 2014 term(s) even if you graduate in May and/or are not registered for the summer.

Important information on W&M Student Health Center eligibility for 2013-2014
All full-time or Research Graduate students are eligible for services at the W&M Student Health Center (SHC). Services offered at the SHC include a variety of primary care medical services (including laboratory testing) and pharmacy services.

1. Full-time students are assessed a Student Health Center fee as part of their tuition and fees during the fall and spring semesters.
2. Research Graduate students will need to make arrangements for the payment of the Student Health Center fee before accessing services during the fall and spring semesters.
3. Full-time or Research Graduate statuses in the spring semester qualifies students for use of the Student Health Center in the summer, with payment of the summer Student Health Center fee, unless the student graduates in May.
4. Part-time or continuous enrollment students are not eligible for services at the Student Health Center.
5. Students who have the College’s Student Insurance Plan but who are no longer eligible to use the services of the Student Health Center due to a change in student status (part-time, continuous enrollment or graduation), may still use the pharmacy services but may not use the medical services at the SHC.

GRADUATE CENTER PROGRAMS

The Graduate Center, located in the Stetson House at 232 Jamestown Road, offers courses and workshops intended to complement your academic curriculum. Meeting times are chosen to avoid conflicts with your primary academic commitments.

COLL 503 (Section 1): Listening, Speaking & Pronunciation Skills - 25763; Begins January 28, 2014 (0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander
Tuesday, 5:00 – 6:50pm, Blow 332
Listening and speaking are inextricably linked. Active listening is a key component to correcting pronunciation errors, and is essential for academic, professional, and personal success. This course is designed for nonnative English speakers who wish to develop their English proficiency. A variety of resources including film, CDs, and the Internet, expose students to different American accents and speech patterns. Recorded assignments provide opportunities for self-assessment and instructor feedback.

COLL 503 (Section 2): Listening, Speaking & Pronunciation Skills - 28805; Begins January 30, 2014 (0 credit, P/F) Instructor – Lee Alexander

Discussion and exploration of college teaching including general issues in college teaching; various teaching strategies including lectures, discussions, group work, writing assignments; course design, syllabus and test construction, and grading; integrating research and education; and job search and application strategies. Students will develop a portfolio to include sample assignments and a general teaching statement. Readings on teaching and learning and on university education.
2014 Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Dissertation Fellowship
The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation, through its scholarship and grant making programs, advances the education of exceptionally promising students who have financial need. Our work allows us to see first-hand how high-achieving students with financial need overcome obstacles and excel academically. Our research, however, has shown that many high-potential, low-income students are unable to successfully navigate these obstacles.

In The Achievement Trap (2007), we found that there is a significant drop off in the number of low-income students who are identified as high-achieving throughout the primary and secondary education system. These student experiences raise important questions about the factors and contexts that help some students with financial need overcome personal adversity, limited educational opportunities, and challenging socioeconomic circumstances to excel academically, and how a deeper understanding of such matters can be used to design programs and interventions that will help more low-income students identified as high achieving early in their primary and secondary school years to sustain their academic achievement levels through college and beyond.

In response to this gap in knowledge, the Foundation has created the Cooke Dissertation Fellowship for advanced doctoral students who are completing dissertations that further the understanding of the educational pathways and experiences of exceptionally promising students who have financial need. The fellowship is intended to focus more scholarly attention on the population of students the Foundation serves in order to enable practitioners, parents, schools and communities to better support such students in achieving their full potential.

Dissertation fellowships are intended to support the doctoral student for work done after the student’s dissertation proposal has been successfully defended. Applications are encouraged from a variety of disciplines such as, but not limited to, education, sociology, economics, psychology, statistics, and psychometrics. Although applicants must be candidates for a doctoral degree at a graduate school in the United States, they need not be US citizens. Please note that the applicants’ graduate study may be in a diverse range of academic disciplines (e.g., policy studies, economics, psychology, education) but their topic must be tied to the Foundation’s mission: advancing the education of exceptionally promising students who have financial need. The fellowship is a one-time award of up to $25,000, which may be used for a period of not less than nine months and up to 18 months, beginning in June 2014. Award decisions are announced in May. See this link for 2014 timeline. We expect to offer six in 2014. Eligible applicants must have completed all pre-dissertation requirements.

Additional information is available at our website. Application Deadline: February 4, 2014

The Program provides support to institutions and other nonprofit organizations that help aspiring filmmakers gain the skills and knowledge they need to make theatrical motion pictures.

2014 Residential Fellowships, Linden Hall Library, deadline: 1/3/14; http://www.lindahall.org/fellowships/. Resident fellowships for the duration of a minimum of 1 month to a maximum of 9 months are offered in support of research projects in science, engineering, and technology; in the history of science, engineering and technology; or in interdisciplinary topics that link science or technology to the broader culture.

W&M INTERNAL PROGRAMS – note these are still open:
Creative Adaptation Fund, deadline: 12/9/13;
http://www.wm.edu/offices/sponsoredprograms/announcements/creative-adaptation-fund.php:
During the September 2011 Board of Visitors meeting, the Board signaled the necessity for the College to engage in "creative adaptation." In response to this, for the last two years, the Provost has issued a call for innovative cost saving and revenue generating proposals and will again make available $200,000 for FY14 to engage and unleash the creative energy in the academic areas to develop creative adaptations that improve the quality of our educational programs either directly or indirectly, by reducing costs or generating new revenues and thereby providing funds that can be reinvested in people and programs.

Community of Scholars Fund, no deadline;
http://www.wm.edu/as/charlescenter/scholars/communityfund/index.php:
Mini-grants from the Community of Scholars Fund are available to faculty, staff, and students to encourage intellectual interaction between faculty and students outside the classroom. Possible uses for this funding include book or film discussion groups; or trips to lectures, museums, performances, laboratories, or field sites, including associated travel and/or meal expenses.

Faculty Fellows, Center for Liberal Arts, deadline: 12/15/13;
http://www.wm.edu/as/dean/center_liberal_arts/call_for_apps/index.php.
The CLA is a home for aspirational curriculum development and a source of continual quality enhancement for the general education curriculum. Each CLA Fellow will also design and teach one new course in the general education curriculum.

2014 Faculty Funding, Reves Center, deadline: 12/13/13;
http://www.wm.edu/offices/revescenter/funding/facultyfunding/index.php.
The Reves Faculty Fellows program supports faculty and their students engaged in international collaborative research and community engagement. The program is designed to encourage proposals from W&M faculty with significant experience in the international arena as well as those seeking to expand the focus of their work to include international, global, and/or trans-national approaches.
