Announcements

- The Graduate Arts and Sciences Honor Council is currently recruiting to fill the Deputy Chair position and four Associate Chair positions for the 2016-17 academic year. Serving on the Council is an honor and a way to become an important part of the William and Mary community and tradition. Council membership is open to any student pursuing a graduate degree in one of the Arts and Sciences departments. Council members meet only when necessary (as cases are reported and trials are held). This makes the overall time commitment minimal. If you are interested in becoming a member, please reply to Sara Scharff
