

Lyon Gardiner Tyler Summer Research Grants
For Undergraduate Majors in History
College of William and Mary

The Lyon Gardiner Tyler endowment to the Department of History provides funds for the support of undergraduate summer research. These funds shall be awarded on a competitive basis to sophomore and junior majors in history who wish to conduct summer research, either in the form of independent study or in preparation to write an honors thesis, and who need financial support for research expenses, such as travel abroad to archives or libraries, the purchase of microfilm, and copying or other expenses. The amount awarded will not exceed $1,000; the average grant will be $500. Students are strongly encouraged to apply for additional support from the Charles Center or Reves Center.

The application deadline for summer research grants is April 1. Applications must include:

- Application cover sheet (attached)
- Current CAPP report (unofficial transcript)
- Two-page, double-spaced description of the project
- Letter of recommendation from the Department of History instructor supervising the research project

All applications should be submitted to Fred Corney, Director of Undergraduate Studies (James Blair 321).

Recipients are requested to submit a copy of the research paper, thesis, or project that results from this award to the Department of History.
