Undergraduate Enrollment in Graduate Level Course for Graduate-Level Credit

To the Registrar's Office, Records Maintenance:

Date: _____

Undergraduate students at The College of William and Mary who have a grade point average of at least 3.0 overall may take for graduate credit in their senior year up to six hours of courses normally offered for graduate credit, provided that these hours are in excess of all requirements for the bachelor's degree. At the time of registration, students must obtain, in the following order, the written consent of:

1. The course instructor;
2. For courses in Arts & Sciences, the department/program chair and the Dean of Graduate Studies;
3. For courses in the School of Business Administration, School of Education, or the School of Law the signature of the appropriate dean or designated representative; and
4. The Dean of Undergraduate Studies, Arts & Sciences.

Such students will be considered the equivalent of unclassified (post baccalaureate) students as far as the application of credit for these courses toward an advanced degree at the College is concerned.
