

Writing Portfolio Submission

Transfer students who have not fulfilled their lower-division writing credit at William and Mary may submit a portfolio for evaluation to the Writing Program Director.

The portfolio should include samples of formal, analytical academic writing (thesis-support structure) totaling at least 24 pages. The total pages should be compiled from a minimum of three or four papers that, preferably, come from a variety of classes and may be from any discipline. If possible, the student should submit copies of the graded, final versions of the papers with professor comments.

The portfolio should also include (Please attach this sheet):

Student's full name _____

College transferring from _____

Date Portfolio Submitted _____

Major _____

Student ID Number _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Students may pick up their papers after being notified about the results of the evaluation. If, after consulting with Academic Advising, you have further questions, please contact:
