W&M Study in DC
2015
2016
Academic and Internship Opportunities

www.wm.edu/dcoffice
DC Semester Program

As a scholar in the Program, you will:

- Experience an academically rigorous curriculum built around a specific semester theme
- Network with alumni
- Secure an internship at a related DC institution

12-14 credits each semester with internships, including speakers, site visits, and alumni networking

Important Dates

To Apply
August 17, 2015 Spring 2016 Applications Open
September 10, 2015 Spring 2016 Information Session
September 24, 2015 Spring 2016 Applications Close
October 2, 2015 Spring 2016 Offers Extended
January 11, 2016 Fall 2016 Applications Open
January 28, 2016 Fall 2016 Information Session
February 10, 2016 Fall 2016 Applications Close
February 18, 2016 Fall 2016 Offers Extended

To Attend
January 18, 2016 Spring 2016 Move-in Day
April 29, 2016 Last day of Spring 2016 classes
August 22, 2016 Fall 2016 Move-in Day
December 2, 2016 Last day of Fall 2016 classes

LEARN MORE
www.wm.edu/dcsemester
wmindc@wm.edu

The W&M Washington Office matches the main campus schedule for Fall Break, Thanksgiving, and Spring Break.

Upcoming 2016–2018 DC Semester Program Themes

SPRING 2016 The 2016 Election: Parties, Campaigns, Consultants, and Voters
Professor Ron Rapoport, Government

FALL 2016 Nation Building and Conflict Resolution in Asia
Professor Chitralekha Zutshi, History

SPRING 2017 Judicial Politics: Law & Politics in the Nation’s Capitol
Professor Christine Nemacheck, Government

FALL 2017 National Defense Politics and Budgeting
Professor John Gilmour, Government

SPRING 2018 Cold War Spies and Other Myths: The Development of Postwar American Culture
Professor Frederick Corney, History

FALL 2018 Citizenship, Policy, and the Public
Professor William Fisher, Anthropology

SPRING 2019 Marketing and Creativity in the Capital
Professor Ann Marie Stock, Modern Languages

FALL 2019 Financial Regulation: Economic Peril or Promise
Professor Katherine Guthrie, Business

SPRING 2020 Public Art and Public Policy
Professor Elizabeth Mead, Art & Art History

FALL 2020 Politics in the Era of Social Media
Professor Jaime Settle, Government
DC Winter Seminars

3 credits in January, including speakers, site visits, and alumni networking

As a student in the Seminars, you will:
• Experience seminar classes, site visits, and discussions with field experts
• Network with alumni

2016 DC Winter Seminars

American Politics
Professor Dan Doherty, Government
International Relations
Professor Amy Oakes, Government
Urban Education
Professor Drew Stelljes, Education

Important Dates
To Apply
September 1, 2015 Applications Open
September 9, 2015 Applications Session
October 1, 2015 Applications Open
October 8, 2015 Applications Extended
To Attend
January 2, 2016 Move-in Day
January 12, 2016 Last day of classes

DC Summer Institutes

6 credits each summer with internships, including speakers, site visits, and alumni networking

As a fellow in the Institutes, you will:
• Experience seminar classes, site visits, and discussions with field experts
• Network with alumni
• Secure an internship at a related DC organization

2016 DC Summer Institutes

Leadership and Community Engagement
Professor Drew Stelljes, Education
New Media
Professor Tim Barnard, American Studies
American Politics
Professor Jaime Settle, Government

Important Dates
To Apply
September 15, 2015 Applications Open
October 1, 2015 Information Session
October 15, 2015 Applications Close
November 4, 2015 Offers Extended
To Attend
May 16-27, 2016 (2 weeks)
Classes all day, Monday-Friday (Seminars, speakers, and site visits)
May 31–August 5, 2016 (10 weeks)
Full time internships related to Institute theme

Important Dates
To Apply
September 1, 2015 Applications Open
September 9, 2015 Information Session
October 1, 2015 Applications Close
October 8, 2015 Offers Extended
To Attend
January 2, 2016 Move-in Day
January 12, 2016 Last day of classes

LEARN MORE
www.wm.edu/dcwinter
dcwinter@wm.edu

LEARN MORE
www.wm.edu/dcsi
dcsi@wm.edu
The W&M DC Summer Session is similar to summer session on campus. Students will enroll in:
- Popular requirements and electives
- Courses that fulfill major/minor requirements
- Late afternoon and evening classes

Important Dates
Registration opens in mid-March
- May 31 – July 1, 2016: Summer Session I
- July 5 – August 5, 2016: Summer Session II