

Transportation from Campus

Rental Car

Enterprise Rent-A-Car

1-800-261-7331

<http://www.enterprise.com>

Enterprise Rent-A-Car is the official provider of rental vehicles for the College. Employees are prohibited from bringing 12-passenger vans into Washington, DC; however, you can rent a van, travel to a Metro parking lot in Northern Virginia, and take the Metro to the office. The cost for a 12-passenger van is approximately $80/day.

Chartered Buses

- Oleta of Williamsburg, 800-656-5382 or <http://www.oleta.com>. The approximate cost for a full day with driver is $1,427 for 47 passengers or $1,672 for 55 passengers
- James River Bus Lines, 804-342-7300 or <http://www.jrbl.com>. The approximate cost for a full day with driver is $1,861 for 47 passengers or $2,150 for 55 passengers

Amtrak

1-800-872-7245 or (757)229-8750

<http://www.amtrak.com>

Amtrak train service is available from Williamsburg to Washington DC's Union Station. The Williamsburg (WBG) train station is located at 468 N. Boundary St.

Trains from Washington to Williamsburg leave during the week at multiple times in the morning, afternoon, and evening. Approximate travel time to Washington's Union Station is 3-4 hours.

Once at Union Station, you can either take a cab to the Washington Office, which will cost approximately $10 or a Metro Stop located at the station, on the Red Line, which you can take to the Dupont Circle Metro Station, the closest to our office.

Greyhound/Trailways Bus Lines

1-800-231-2222 or (757)229-1460

<http://www.greyhound.com/home/>

Greyhound bus service is available from Williamsburg to Washington, DC's Union Station. The Williamsburg bus depot is located at 468 N. Boundary Street.

Multiple buses leave Williamsburg during the week at various times from morning to evening. Approximate travel time to Washington, DC's Union Station is three to six hours, depending on schedule.

Once at Union Station, you can either take a cab to the Washington Office, which will cost approximately $10, or a Metro Stop is located at the station, on the Red Line, which you can take to the Dupont Circle Metro Station, the closest to our office.