 - 2. Please update your rosters in order to have accurate grade reports over the summer.
 - 3. Do not forget to meet with Jen Leung for an end of the semester wrap up.
 - 4. It is Meg Shamburger’s last meeting! Thank you for two amazing years as our graduate assistant!

IV. Open Discussion

- A. How do we let people back on campus and allow people to present?
 - 1. There is a tacit agreement that we will consider chapter that have left campus again if they ask to re-colonize.

- B. Why weren’t fraternities at Saturday admitted students day?
 - 1. CFA representative were at admitted student days on Mondays and Fridays and were unaware of Saturday activity fairs.

- C. Do fraternities get nonprofit discounts for computer software?
1. Your national organization can provide more information on your non-profit status and how it may factor into your purchases.
- D. Is it possible to approve who does and does not present plans for expansion on campus?
1. Can introduce such an amendment at the beginning of next year.
 2. We can look into creating a transparent timeline for adding chapters back to campus.
- E. Who and when is the next organization on the list?
1. With two relatively new fraternities, we will probably not hear from other organizations for a while as Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Phi Epsilon are watched for success.
