Choosing Your Retirement Plan

Please review the retirement plan comparison to assist you in making your retirement election.
Choose a retirement plan within 60 days of your hire date
- For example, employees hired on August 10\textsuperscript{th}, the deadline will be October 8\textsuperscript{th}

Virginia Retirement System (VRS) – Hybrid Plan, a combination of a defined benefit plan and a defined contribution plan

Optional Retirement Plan (ORP) – Plan 2, a defined contribution plan

If you do not select the ORP within 60 days of employment, you will default into the VRS Hybrid Plan
Virginia Retirement System - Hybrid Plan

- Each pay period, you contribute a total of 5% of your gross pay on a pre-tax basis to a retirement plan:
  - 4% to the defined benefit (DB) component
  - 1% to the defined contribution (DC) component

- Defined benefit at retirement is based on formula:
  - \(\frac{\text{Average final compensation} \times 1\% \times \text{years of service}}{12}\)
  - Vesting period is 5 years of service to be eligible for the DB component
Eligible for the defined benefit retirement at normal Social Security retirement age or when age + service = 90 (e.g., age 60 with 30 years of service)
Cash Match for VRS-Hybrid

- After the first quarter of participation, you may increase your contribution to the DC component to a maximum of an additional 4% and receive an employer match on your contributions.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY LONG-TERM DISABILITY INSURANCE

This plan is administered by The Standard and is provided by the College after you complete one year of permanent employment. Should you become disabled, benefits would begin after six months of disability. Benefits are paid at the rate of 60% of your monthly salary (not to exceed $6,000.00 per month) less the amount of benefits from other sources (such as Worker’s Compensation or Social Security Disability). The College picks up 60% of the premium and you would pay 40%. The current cost is 171% of your annual salary divided by 12. For example:

Salary $50,000/12 months=$4,166.67 salary per month

\[ \text{Premium} = \frac{\text{Salary}}{12} \times 171\% \]

\[ \text{Premium} = \frac{4,166.67}{12} \times 171\% = 7.13 \]

Employer Premium:

\[ 60\% \times 7.13 = 4.28 \]

Employee Premium:

\[ 40\% \times 7.13 = 2.85 \]

Employee Premium or $1.43 per paycheck

G405, Benefits Orientation Forms/Sick and Disability Leave Comparison

Revised 08/2017
Group Long Term Disability Insurance - The Standard

- The cost is .171% of annual salary

- Example:
  $50,000/12 = $4,166.67/mo.
  $4,166.67 x .171% = $7.13
  60% x $7.13 = $4.28 Employer pays
  40% x $7.13 = $2.85 Employee pays
  Total paid per paycheck = $1.43

Craig makes an appointment with his doctor because he’s ill. When he arrives at the doctor’s office, he pays the $25 co-pay.

After his exam, his doctor refers him to a specialist. At the specialist’s office, Craig pays a $40 co-pay to see the doctor.

The specialist orders a CT scan to aid in the diagnosis of his illness, a bill that totals $1,000. Craig must meet his deductible ($300) and then is responsible for paying a 20% co-insurance ($140) for the remaining balance.

Once Craig pays $1,500 out-of-pocket, he will not have to pay any further allowable charges for the remainder of the plan year (until June 30th).

COVA HealthAware

- Consumer-driven health plan administered by Aetna
- Includes a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) fund of $600 for an employee and $1,200 for an employee and his/her spouse (does not include dependent children)
  - Example #1: Craig goes to his primary care physician; he has not been to the doctor yet this plan year. The office visit fee plus the lab test done cost $150. This amount is debited from the HRA, and Craig pays nothing. Craig now has an HRA balance of $450.
- Additional HRA funds (up to $150/employee, spouse) available by doing healthy activities called “do rights.” You will receive $50/each in your HRA for completing three of the following Do Rights:
  - Routine annual physical
  - Routine dental exam
  - Routine vision exam
  - Annual flu shot
  - Use MyActiveHealth Tracker
  - Complete MyActiveHealth Coaching Module

- Unused HRA funds roll over to the next plan year

Craig makes an appointment with his doctor because he’s ill. When he arrives at the doctor’s office, he doesn’t pay anything since the cost of the visit is charged to his Health Reimbursement Account (HRA).

After his exam, his doctor refers him to a specialist. At the specialist’s office, Craig pays the entire cost of the visit if he has used all of his HRA funds.

The specialist orders a CT scan to aid in the diagnosis of Craig’s illness, a bill that totals $1,000. Once Craig has met his deductible ($1,500), he is then responsible for paying a 20% co-insurance for the remaining balance.

Once Craig pays $3,000 out-of-pocket, he will not have to pay any further allowable charges for the remainder of the plan year (until June 30th).

Section 5: Employee Certification and Authorization

I certify that I have reviewed and understand the State Health Benefits Program eligibility and enrollment information and I agree to abide by all participation requirements. I certify that all dependents listed meet the eligibility requirements of the program and that the information I have provided on this form is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that intentionally giving incorrect information is considered penalty and punishable to the fullest extent of the law. I understand that the health plan and its business associates have the right to use protected health information in connection with the treatment, payment and health plan operations allowed for by HIPAA. I understand that participating in a Flexible Spending Account (FSA) is completely voluntary, and that payments from my FSA are independently reviewed for compliance with IRS regulations. I further understand that the IRS requires me to reimburse the Plan for any improper, erroneous or excess reimbursement amount that I do not resolve within the timeframe provided by the Plan. In accordance with § 60.1-20(C) of the Code of Virginia, by enrolling in an FSA I specifically authorize the Commonwealth of Virginia to withhold from my paycheck on a post tax basis such amounts as are necessary to replenish my FSA for any improper, erroneous or excess reimbursement.
