Personal Statement: What motivates your interest in living in the Community Scholars House?

Statement of Intent: As a resident of the Community Scholars House, you will be expected to enroll in at least one course that is relevant to your intentions for community engagement in the academic year. How do you plan to fulfill this requirement? (To the extent possible, indicate a specific course. Community Studies courses are appropriate for this requirement, but students are encouraged to consider the relevance of other courses in the curriculum which may inform or enhance their community service for the year.)

Service-Learning Course Work and Community Engagement: Please list previous service-learning courses and any community engagement activities at W&M.

Profile in Community Engagement and Scholarship: Please list any scholarships, awards, or leadership positions held for community engagement and scholarship, whether at the College or independent of W&M programs. (Include sustained community engagement activities, even if you did not hold a leadership position.)

Residence Hall Involvement: Residents of the Community Scholars House are required to actively participate in the planning and development of the year's program, working with fellow residents to engage residential and campus discussions about community engagement, social issues, and volunteer events. What strengths do you bring to the house that will help achieve these goals?

References: Please list the name and contact information of a W&M professor, administrator, or community sponsor who could speak on behalf of your motivation and leadership potential for community engagement and scholarship.

STATEMENT OF REQUIREMENTS: Please be sure to READ AND INITIAL the following:

_____ I understand that I must pay the $200 non-refundable deposit at the Cashier's Window in the Bursar's Office located in Blow Memorial Hall (8:00am - 5:00pm, Monday-Friday). All deposits must be paid by 5:00pm on Friday, February 18, 2011.

_____ I understand that if I sign a Housing Contract to live in the Community Scholars House, I will not be able to participate in the "Room Selection Process". If I decide that I would like to move to other campus housing, I will be offered space elsewhere on campus only after all other students paying their deposits are housed.

_____ I hereby pledge to be fully committed to the purpose of the Community Scholars House, to be an active, contributing resident, and to support Community Scholars House programs.
