Note: If you anticipate not having internet access during the on-line room selection process please contact Residence Life for options. Designating a friend or family member as a proxy is not an option for the on-line selection process since sharing your user ID and password with another individual is a violation of College policy.

I hereby give permission to the designated party listed below to select a room on my behalf. I understand that by giving this designated party permission, they are selecting a room for me and signing an agreement that is legally binding for me for the academic year of the contract. It is understood that failure of the designated party listed below to select a room, or failure of the designated party to select a room that I specify, is not grounds for cancellation of the 2012-2013 Housing Agreement.
