The tuition exchange agreement between the College of William and Mary and the University of Manchester Business School, allows William and Mary students to pay their regular tuition to William and Mary while taking business classes in Manchester, England. This exchange is open only to students admitted to the Mason School of Business.

The University of Manchester is one of the most popular universities in the UK with over 36,000 students and the business school is renowned for its innovation and management focus.

The city of Manchester is situated in the Northwest of England and offers a compelling mixture of Victorian architecture and cosmopolitan activities. Manchester is within easy traveling distance of Britain’s National Parks, and London and also provides easy access to most major European cities via cheap flights from Manchester & Liverpool airports.

For more information on study abroad at Manchester visit: http://www.manchester.ac.uk/international/studyabroadandexchanges/