PLUMERI HOUSE POLICIES

The Plumeri House seeks to continue the College of William & Mary’s history of hospitality as a home away from home for special members of the William & Mary family. We look forward to welcoming you to Williamsburg!

THE HOUSE

Located just off of Jamestown Road and across the street from William & Mary’s historic campus, the Plumeri House provides easy access to the College, the shops and restaurants of downtown Williamsburg, and the attractions of Colonial Williamsburg.

The Plumeri House has two distinctively appointed bedroom suites, an inviting living room, a dining room that can accommodate ten, and a fully-equipped kitchen. There is a downstairs screened porch and an upstairs balcony off one bedroom that overlooks the house’s beautiful yard. The interior is designed to give the feel of home – with stately yet comfortable furnishings and a warm ambience.

AVAILABILITY

Although open to the public, the Plumeri House is intended for use by special members of the William & Mary family. Members of the College community who are donors at the James Blair Society, the Royal Charter Society, the Chancellor’s Society, the Green & Gold Society or the President’s Society level, have the opportunity to reserve accommodations at the Plumeri House throughout the year. Members of the William & Mary family who do not yet give at these levels may reserve space at the Plumeri House 15 – 30 days in advance of their stay, and additional costs apply.

RATES & RESERVATIONS

Guests have the choice of two individual rooms at the Plumeri House, both with private baths and sitting rooms. When applicable, the downstairs and outdoors space will be shared with other guests. Additionally, if available, the entire house may be rented for overnight accommodations.
