

W&M in Washington Housing Agreement

Name: _____

DC mailing address: The Buchanan, 320 23rd Street South, Arlington, VA 22202

The student's signature on this agreement indicates that the student agrees to and accepts the following terms and conditions.

- The student will enter into a lease agreement with The Buchanan for housing. The lease and this agreement relate to the Spring 2011 semester only, specifically August 22nd, 2011 – December 12th, 2011.
- Program fees and housing costs (rent) are non-refundable. Students are required to pay the rental fees for the full semester. All W&M in Washington Program fees and rent will not be refunded upon any withdrawal from the Program prior to the beginning of the semester, or early departure from the Program (whether initiated by the student or the College). Other tuition or fees would be refunded in accordance with the College's refund policy, available at: <http://www.wm.edu/financialoperations/sa/re.php>
- The resident will abide by the regulations of The College of William and Mary (the College) set forth in the current addition of the Student Handbook as well as the provisions outlined in the Community Agreement established once in Washington.
- The W&M in Washington Program works in conjunction with the Buchanan. Therefore, all students enrolled in the Program will be living at the Buchanan and are expected to abide by all Buchanan rules and regulations.
- It is expressly understood that violation of policies in the Student Handbook by the resident may result in penalties ranging from a warning to the resident, dismissal from the housing at the Buchanan, dismissal from the W&M in Washington Program, to permanent dismissal from the College.
