

The Office of Student Activities at the College of William and Mary is pleased to announce the addition of a new staff member (and newly created position) within Student Activities.

Jennifer Leung joined the staff on August 20th in her new role of Asst. Director of Student Activities – Leadership & Fraternity/Sorority Life. In this new position, Jen and Anne Arseneau will work closely together on furthering initiatives for the fraternity/sorority community AND on leadership development opportunities for all students and student organizations at the College.

As we begin the Fall 2007 semester, Jen will take primary responsibility for advising the Council for Fraternity Affairs (CFA) and the 16 fraternity chapters at the College. Anne Arseneau will take primary responsibility for advising the Inter-Sorority Council (ISC) and the 12 sorority chapters. In addition, they are joined by Meg Shamburger, the new Graduate Assistant for Fraternity/Sorority Life who will work with them to support the initiatives of our great Greek community at William and Mary.

Please feel free to contact any of us in your efforts for the coming year. We look forward to a great and exciting year ahead!
