HULON WILLIS ASSOCIATION

HULON WILLIS ASSOCIATION | 2025 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

DUE BY APRIL 25, 2025

Hulon Willis M.Ed '56 was the first black graduate of William & Mary and served as a pioneer for those who have followed in his footsteps. To honor his legacy and memory, the Hulon Willis Association was formed and a scholarship was established to recognize students who have made significant contributions to the multicultural community at William and Mary.

Criteria

- Must be currently enrolled as a full-time degree seeking undergraduate student in good standing with W&M
- Must have completed at least one full-time semester at W&M (Spring 2025 semester not included), and cannot be a graduating senior
- Must have a demonstrated record of leadership and/or service to the multicultural college and/or local community

In addition to the above criteria, preference will be given to those students who are receiving need-based aid at the College.
