

COLL
300

Image by Laura Emiko Soltis

Inclusion and the University: Conversations with Students from Freedom University

Laura Emiko Soltis, Executive Director and Freedom University Student Leaders

April 12, 2017
Wednesday, 5:00 pm

Commonwealth Auditorium,
Sadler Center

Sponsored by:

Center for the Liberal Arts
Dean's Office, Arts & Sciences
American Studies Program
Hispanic Studies Program
Latin American Studies Program
Department of Sociology
Latin American Student Union

Laura Emiko Soltis and three undocumented student leaders share experiences and insights from their bold experiment: to empower undocumented youth and fulfill their human right to education. Inspired by the legacy of the Southern Freedom School tradition, Freedom University provides tuition-free classes, college application and scholarship assistance, and social movement leadership training for undocumented students banned from public higher education in Georgia.

For more information:

<http://www.wm.edu/cla>

WILLIAM & MARY
CHARTERED 1693