

COLL
300

micha cárdenas, Ph.D.

October 17, 2018
Wednesday, 5:00 pm

Commonwealth Auditorium,
Sadler Center

Sponsored by

Center for the Liberal Arts
Dean's Office, Arts & Science

The Equality Lab

100 Years of Women Celebration Committee
Program in Engineering, Physics, & Applied Design

For more information

www.wm.edu/cia

micha cárdenas works at the intersection of borders — geographical, political, corporeal, theoretical. Her passion is creating worlds based in reality and beyond where transgender people, people of color, migrants, and the marginalized can move and live without danger or death. Bridging the gap between the humanities and applied design, she will bring a spark of creativity and a heavy dose of reality in exposing the risks of everyday life for those who engage borders.

