

1997 DOW SCHOLARSHIPS

Owen Duckworth

Kristin Joslyn

Since 1990, William and Mary has received scholarship funding for chemistry majors from The Dow Chemical Company Foundation. Each year two freshmen with especially strong backgrounds in chemistry are selected by the chemistry faculty to receive a Dow Scholarship. These students receive a $2000 scholarship annually for four years and research support for at least one summer.

return to table of contents