

The College of William and Mary
Educational Policy Committee

Minutes

January 22, 2009

Attendance: J.C. Poutsma (Chair), Gail Bossenga, John Charles, Maureen Fitzgerald, Steve Holliday, Rob Leventhal, Sallie Marchello, Kim Phillips, Cory Springer, Jennifer Stevens.

Guest: Joel Schwartz

1. Meeting Called to order at 3:30.
2. December 11, 2008 minutes approved.
3. New Course Applications
 - CMST 100 – Formerly INTR 100 -Tabled
 - CMST 250 - Tabled
 - CMST 350 - Tabled
 - CMST 351 - Tabled
 - CMST 450 – Formerly INTR 450 - Tabled
 - HISP 394 - Approved
 - PHIL 375 - Approved
 - PUBP 150 – Approved. Also approved PHIL 150W
 - RELG 363 - Approved
 - RELG 378 - Approved
4. Course Changes
 - APSC 451 –Change to APSC 351 - Approved
 - ARTH 389 – Removing repeatable option - Approved
 - INTR 100 - new subject and number, CMST 100 - Tabled
 - INTR 450 - new subject and number, CMST 450 - Tabled
 - RELG 308 – variable 3 to 4 - Approved
- 5.. Curriculum Changes
 - ART/H – Non-western requirement changed to Non-western/cross-cultural.
- Approved
 - NSCI – Curriculum changes - Approved
 - PUBP – Add second methods course option - Approved
6. GER Courses
 - ENGL 465 – GER 5 – Approved
 - LCST 351 – GER 5 – need syllabus with GER info added
7. Community Studies Minor
 - Joel Schwartz presented information about the proposed Community Studies minor. It is self-designed in nature; advising intensive; will include a methods course and a scope course; will culminate in research or independent study; will include community partnership. Will consist of 18+ credits: 1 entry course; 1 methods course; 2 electives; 1 scope course; 1 independent study/research course. EPC will discuss pros and cons and get back with CHIS.

8. Meeting adjourned 5:20.