

Educational Policy Committee Minutes, April 10, 2015

Present: John Gilmour (co-chair), Jamie Armstrong, Lu Ann Homza, Bill Hutton, Heather Macdonald, Peter Vishton, Weizhen Mao, Sallie Marchello

Scribe: Heather Macdonald

I. The minutes of the 4/3/15 meeting were approved.

II. EPC regular matters: COLL 200 proposals

A. PHIL 252 and PHIL 205 course descriptions approved.

B. INTR 299 W&M Summer Study Abroad Program Preparation Course - spring summer abroad preparation course. This course is for when there isn't a logical department home. Departments and programs who want to have their own course may do so. We understand that these courses will include substantive academic content beyond preparation for travel.

C. COLL 200 courses

- LAS 350: Latin American Cultures, Politics, and Societies, ALV>CSI;CSI>ALV. Tabled. Ask for more information on the syllabus, especially to include some of the readings.
- BIOL 220: Intro to Organisms, Eco, Evo, NQR>ALV/CSI. Approved.
- MREN 201: Introduction to Medieval and Renaissance Studies, ALV>CSI. Approved.
- PHIL 350: Theory of Knowledge, ALV>CSI/NQR. Approved.
- GRMN 387: Translation and Conflict, ALV>CSI;CSI>ALV. Approved, but instructor should make it clear in the course description that students need sufficient mastery of a language other than English to allow them to translate a short passage.
- GEOL 101: Our Dynamic Earth, NQR>CSI. Approved.
- GEOL 110: Physical Geography: Earth's Environmental Systems, NQR>CSI. Approved
- AMST 203: Intro to American Studies: Am. Medicine: A Social and Cultural History, CSI>ALV. Approved.
- ENGL 207: Trauma and Recovery in American Literature, ALV>CSI/NQR. Tabled. Please submit a syllabus that includes some of the CSI & NQR readings and/or content.
- HIST 311: European Enlightenment, ALV>CSI. Approved.

D. Informal discussion of proposed 3-3 Law program