

Minutes for the November 30, 2016 meeting of the Educational Policy Committee:

Committee Members Present: Peter Vishton; Jennifer Taylor; Chandos Brown; John Charles; Elizabeth Harbron; Bill Hutton; Weizhen Mao

Non-Committee Members Present: Susan Bosworth; Lu Ann Homza; Michele Jackson; Cory Springer

Minutes from the meeting of 11/16/16: approved

Jennifer Taylor announced that EPC's meeting time would remain the same for Spring 2017: Wednesdays at 11:00 am.

Peter Vishton asked the committee to continue to treat meeting on 12/7/16 as a possibility, though it could be canceled.

No other new business.

Approvals:

Spring 2017. ANTHR 350. Standing with Standing Rock. Approved for COLL 300 credit.

BIOL 444. Mentored Biology Teaching (1 credit). Change in course description. Approved. Recognized that the application should have included the original catalog language for the course; Cory Springer noted that she would amend the Curriculog form to make that requirement clearer.

INTR 490. Mediterranean Food & Culture. Approved for COLL 200, CSI to NQR.

LING 346. Submitted by Jack Martin, director of Linguistics. New course: approved. This class is to be permanently cross-listed with MLL 346; MLL is expected to file the proper paperwork.

RLGS 309. The Holocaust. Approved for COLL 200. [I did not see its domains?]

Peter Vishton mentioned cross-listing and the possibility of a new subcommittee. It was agreed that such a subcommittee was important; resolved to form such a committee in January 2017.

Michele Jackson asked EPC about the courses that have been approved for the Washington DC program in Summer 2017. The Director of the Program, Adam Anthony, has asked these faculty to think about requesting COLL 200 and/or COLL 300 credit. It was suggested to Michele that these faculty should reach out to Fellows in the Center for the Liberal Arts for assistance. Peter noted that EPC would prefer to receive the proposals earlier rather than later.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 AM.
