

EPC Meeting Minutes
February 18, 2022

In attendance: Jim Barber, Annie Blazer, Ben Boone, Susan Bosworth, Magali Compan, Jim Deverick, Josh Erlich, Matt Haug, Sallie Marchello, Cory Springer, Kristin Wustholz (chair).

1. Approval of the minutes from the Feb. 11, 2022 meeting

The minutes were approved by unanimous consent.

2. Consent Calendar

ANTH - 311 - Colonialism, Slavery, & Rebellion	COLL 350
CSCI - 243 - Discrete Structures of Computer Science	Course change
CSCI - 304 - Computer Organization	Course change
Computational & Applied Mathematics and Stats - CAMS Mathematical Biology	Curriculum change
Computer Science - n/a	Curriculum change
PUBP - 419 - Social Network Analysis	COLL 400
RELG - 346 - Religion, the State, and American Politics	COLL 350
AFST THEA - 346 - Nommo Force: Black Acting Theories & Performance	New Course

Josh noticed that PUBP 419 is a course that had been taught over 6 times as a Topics Course. He reminded us that Topics courses can only be taught 3 times.

Ben Boone answered that this is part of the work done within the Sustainable curriculum. Every department will convert topics courses taught more than 3 times and will submit proposals to create courses by the end of the semester.

The consent calendar was approved by unanimous consent.

3. Other proposals

-CONS - 410 - Indigenous Voices in Conservation	COLL 350
---	----------

Magali Compan will contact the instructor of CONS 410 and ask that they add the COLL 350 goals. The COLL 350 attribute will be retroactive. Students enrolled in the course this spring semester will fulfil the requirement.
Course approved by unanimous consent

-CSCI - 220 - Intermediate Topics	New course
-----------------------------------	------------

Jim Deverick explained that this will be a recurring topics course, it will not count toward the major.

EPC does not require syllabus for a Topics course.

Course approved by unanimous consent

Kristin Wustholz asked Sallie for an update on Incomplete. While Sallie Marchello and Doug Young (CAS Chair) have collected data and noticed that there were even more incompletes in the Fall 2021, they have not made progress on a policy yet. Sallie will update EPC next week.

The meeting adjourned at 11:40 am
