

Arts and Sciences Election

To: Faculty of Arts and Sciences
From: Committee on Nominations and Elections
Date: September 26, 1994
Subject: Special Election to the Board of Faculty Compensation, October 4, 1994.

The faculty will elect two members to the College Board of Faculty Compensation. One member will serve a full term (two years as a full member and one year as an alternate) to replace Gary Smith (Modern Languages), whose term has expired, and should have been replaced on May 2, 1994. The faculty will elect one member to a partial term (one year as a full member and one year as an alternate) to complete the term of Henry Hart (English) who has resigned. The continuing Arts and Sciences members are Berhanu Abegaz (1998), David Aday (1997), and Edward Remler (alternate 1995). The current committee assignments of the nominees are in parentheses:

The Nominees are:

Norman Fashing, Biology (Judicial Council)
Alan Fuchs, Philosophy (Faculty Assembly, Concerts)
William Morrow, Government
Margaret Schaefer, Mathematics (Admissions Policy Advisory)
