

Job Description

- Could also be GIS technician, cartographer, photogrammetrist, or software developer
- Present spatial information in a digital format
- Make maps, compile data, or develop software

Degree & Skills

- Bachelor's degree required, usually with focus in cartography, geography, geomatics, or surveying.
- Licensure required in some states
- Proficiency in programming languages is helpful

Current Job Boards

- GIS Lounge: <https://www.gislounge.com/gis-job-listings/>
- Flex Jobs: <https://www.flexjobs.com/blog/post/companies-that-hire-remote-gis-jobs/>
- Indeed, GIS Tech Jobs in VA: <https://www.indeed.com/q-GIS-Technician-I-Virginia-jobs.html?vjk=6da8f8e033715707>

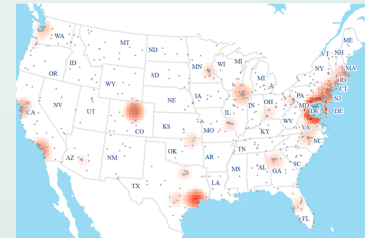

Industry & Location

- Common in environmental services, natural resource exploration, architecture, urban planning, engineering, and local government
- Any location, including virtual
- Mostly office work, some field work

Statistics

- Median salary: $68,900 per year
 - 3% job growth expected
 - 13,400 jobs in 2021

Map of GIS Analyst job listings, 2012 →

References

<https://www.blueraster.com/>

<https://www.flexjobs.com/blog/post/companies-that-hire-remote-gis-jobs/>

https://learn.org/articles/What Does a GIS Analyst Do.html

<https://gis.usc.edu/blog/the-6-top-industries-for-gis/>

<https://www.telusinternational.com/>

<https://www.natureserve.org/>

<https://www.gislounge.com/gis-job-listings/>

<https://www.gislounge.com/where-are-the-gis-jobs-a-look-at-the-gis-job-market-in-the-united-states/>

<https://www.bls.gov/ooh/architecture-and-engineering/cartographers-and-photogrammetrists.htm>