Todd W. Weaver Travel Abroad Award Application Form

The Todd W. Weaver Travel Abroad Award will be presented to a Government or International Relations major to support the student's travel. The award provides an opportunity for a student who might not otherwise have the chance to visit other nations in order to learn more about and provide service to people in other parts of the world. One award for $2500 will be granted in 2026/2027 to support a student traveling abroad in the Summer of 2026 or for a semester or year during the Academic Year 2026/2027.

Applications must include this application form, a copy of the student's unofficial transcript, one faculty letter of recommendation attesting to the student's general academic ability and likelihood of benefitting from this award, and a statement providing:

1. Proposed Foreign Travel Dates, Destination(s) and program, if applicable
2. An explanation in no more than 250 words of how this award would affect your plans for travel abroad and how your proposed travel would meet the objectives of the award, i.e., to better understand and to provide service to people around the world.
