OGSR Reminders

1. Thanksgiving Break! There will be no classes and offices will be closed November 21-23.
2. Parking Survey. The GSA and Grad Center are gathering data about parking; fill out a brief survey.

Graduate Center Programs

1. Science Writing Retreat, January 7-11, 2019. This writing bootcamp, primarily for students in terminal masters programs in the sciences, is intended to help you get a jumpstart on your thesis writing. The retreat is facilitated by Sarah Glosson. To be registered, please fill out this form or email sgglos@wm.edu by November 15.
2. Digital Humanities Bootcamp, January 7-11, 2019. Interested in gaining hands-on experience with a variety of programming and computing skills for a digital humanities project or to help you manage and automate working with your humanities “data” (e.g., archival materials, photographs)? Sign up for the Computing for the Humanities bootcamp taught by Prof. Jim Deverick in computer science. Email sgglos@wm.edu to be registered.
3. Postponed: The Graduate LGBTQ+ Social Group’s interest meeting scheduled for Nov. 13 has been postponed. Watch for a follow-up announcement in an upcoming newsletter. Student run & organized; sponsored by the Grad Center.
4. “Invisible Careers for Humanities Grads” November 14, 5-6:30 p.m. at the Cohen Career Center. A panel of alumni from our humanities PhD programs will highlight career paths beyond the academy that are not your run-of-the-mill “alt-ac” jobs, and how to get there (5-6 p.m.). Catered reception to follow (6-6:30).
5. Get help with your writing! Graduate Writing Resources Center can help with any type of graduate-level writing. Free service. Make an appointment with a graduate consultant online.
6. Saturday Write-Ins with the GWRC. Come get your writing done in a quiet, supportive environment. Free snacks and optional help from a GWRC consultant. Register online. Saturdays, 10AM-1PM in the Graduate Commons.
