

WILLIAM & MARY

CHARTERED 1693

HARRISON RUFFIN TYLER DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Student Name (Last, First, Middle): _____ Student ID: 93_____

Explanatory note: No more than six (6) Advanced Placement (AP) credits can be applied toward the total 33 credits required. Additional AP credit beyond the six credits can and will apply toward the 120 credits needed for graduation, but not toward the B.A. in history. At the time they declare a major in history, students must designate which six AP credits they wish to apply toward the 33 credit hours in history. These six credits will subsequently be programmed in Banner by the Registrar’s Office. No other AP credits will apply toward the history degree credit requirements.

Instructions:

1. List ALL AP courses in history by name and indicate the number of AP credits received.
2. Designate the AP course(s) you wish to apply toward your history degree credit requirements by marking the appropriate box.
3. Sign the form along with your advisor in history
4. Attach this form to the “Declaration/Change of Major” form and the history supplemental form and submit all three forms to the Registrar’s Office.
