

Lyon Gardiner Tyler Minor Grants
For Undergraduate Research in History
College of William and Mary

The Lyon Gardiner Tyler endowment to the Department of History provides funds for the support of undergraduate research. These funds shall be awarded on a competitive basis to majors in history who wish to conduct research, whether in the form of an honors thesis, independent study, or a senior seminar, and who need financial support for research expenses, such as travel to archives or libraries, the purchase of microfilm, and copying or other expenses. The amount awarded will not exceed $200; the average grant will be $100. Students are strongly encouraged to apply for additional support from the Charles Center or Reves Center.

The application deadlines for these research grants are October 15 and March 15. Applications must include:

- One-page cover sheet (attached)
- One-paragraph summary of your project

All applications should be submitted to Prof. Fred Corney, Director of Undergraduate Studies (James Blair 321).
