OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE REVOLUTIONARY GUARD BATTALION

WHO WE ARE

The RGB is a combined Military Science program between the College of William & Mary and Christopher Newport University.

We are 130 cadets strong and welcomed new Cadre during the Spring 2025 semester.

WHAT WE DO

Our mission is to develop citizens of character who are committed to a lifetime of service to the nation. We accomplish this by instilling the Army values and encouraging cadets to excel both academically and through extracurricular involvement. As students first, our cadets embody the core principles of these two great schools, engaging in experiences that strengthen their integrity and character.

FIELD TRAINING EXERCISES

OBSTACLE COURSE

LAND NAVIGATION

STX LANES

Over a weekend our cadets were physically and tactically tested. Starting early in the morning, cadets completed a series of obstacles, tested their land navigation skills, and were introduced to platoon level movements.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Throughout the semester, cadets participated in various joint events to promote comradery between the companies while developing physical fitness.

9/11 PT

On September 11, 2001, terrorists crashed two hijacked airplanes into the North and South Towers of the World Trade Center. To honor the fallen we did a workout to replicate the kind of environment that the first responders had to go through.

MOGADISHU MILE

The Mogadishu mile is in honor the 1993 Battle of Mogadishu. The CNU cadets traveled to the William and Mary campus. The cadets were paired off and did laps around the track while holding a 45 pound dumbbell.

CWST

The Combat Water Survival Test (CWST) is a commissioning requirement for the cadets. The purpose of this is to assess their ability to function in a water emergency and also ensures they can survive in water while wearing combat equipment

SPOOKY PT

FUTURE HAPPENINGS

With the end of the semester nearing, cadets are training for the AFT, the Ranger Challenge team is preparing for the spring competition, and A Co. is looking forward for the Awards Ceremony to mark the end of the semester.
