Thursday, September 24, 3:30-5 pm
Washington Hall 315

In Fall 2015, W&M launched the new General Education curriculum, beginning with the new College 100 “Big Ideas” freshman course. Four colleagues in Modern Languages & Literatures are teaching a COLL 100 this semester. In this roundtable discussion, professors will overview COLL 100 and its place in the college curriculum. Be ready to brainstorm your own “Big Ideas” for preparing your own COLL 100.
