

WILLIAM & MARY
NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF
AMERICAN HISTORY & DEMOCRACY

Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974

---

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974, William & Mary does not release personally identifiable information to anyone other than the student without a student's written consent.

Participants in the National Institute of American History & Democracy's Pre-College Program in American History are covered under the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 because they are enrolled in an undergraduate class at William & Mary.

I authorize William & Mary to share the information circled below with my parent(s) / guardian(s) and / or spouse:

- ☐ Yes    No    Information concerning my academic performance including grades, notification of academic warning, academic probation, and required academic withdrawal.
Yes, but limited to whom: _____
- ☐ Yes    No    Financial Information, including billings, charges, payments, refunds, and scholarships.
Yes, but limited to whom: _____
- ☐ Yes    No    Information concerning student conduct/honor investigations and/or actions.
Yes, but limited to whom: _____

I understand that although I may authorize the college to give information to my parent(s) / guardian(s) and/or spouse, I remain personally responsible for my conduct and my obligations to William & Mary.

Student Name _____ Banner ID _____
(Please Print)

Student Signature _____ Date _____