Internship for Academic Credit Form

Qualified students interested in pursuing an internship for academic credit must complete this form. The form must be signed by the student and the supervisor. All internships must be approved by the department head or equivalent and must be evaluated for academic credit. academic credit and includes an academic experience that is consistent with the minimum academic standards required for academic credit. Students must complete at least 120 academic units to be awarded academic credit. Students must complete the internship for academic credit in academic internships and may be applied toward a degree. For completing Sections A and B, obtain the signature of your supervising W&M faculty member (Section C).