

PERFECT WORLD SCENARIO

---

Consider your perfect world. Do not try to consider how each question will fit together at the same time, instead, think of each question on its own. If it is something you have never before considered, you can also write down how you know you do not want it to be in a perfect world.

1. How do you expect to dress every day?
  - a. Uniform/casual/business casual/business professional/athletic gear/scrubs
2. Where will you be living?
  - a. Type of living arrangements
    - i. Apartment/high rise/house/roommates or no
  - b. Location
    - i. City/country/urban/rural/suburb/downtown/old town
3. What will be available to you outside of work—without needing to travel far?
  - a. Theater/gym/movies/concerts/outdoors/hiking/skiing/museums/sporting events
4. How will you commute every day?
  - a. Walk/public transportation/drive/bike/won't have to—working from home
5. In what type of facility will you be working?
  - a. Government building/school building/farm/hospital/office building/shopping center
6. What will your work space look like?
  - a. Shared/cubicle/office/classroom/operating room
7. Who/what will you be working with?
  - a. Children/elderly/adults/animals/alone
8. What will your supervisor and/or team be like?
  - a. Supportive/very involved/unaware
9. What tasks/responsibilities/skills will you be doing/using on a daily basis?
  - a. Analyzing/helping/strategizing/teaching/persuading/leading/planning
10. How/when will you know you have been successful?
  - a. Promotion/raise/recognition by team, client, student/increased sales
  - b. Will you know that day/a week later/a year later/at all

After answering each question, please identify 2-5 of the items that, if you could have only these, you would feel satisfied. This is an attempt to help you think of the following elements when making decision regarding career options, narrow down, and prioritize those you wish to involve in your pursuits.