

RITA GREENGOLD
Curriculum Vitae

Graduate students should include their institutional mailing address.

123 Jamestown Road
Williamsburg, Virginia 23187
804-221-XXXX
rlgreengold@email.wm.edu

College of William & Mary
Lyon G. Tyler Department of History
P.O. Box 8795
Williamsburg, Virginia 23185

EDUCATION

GPA unnecessary on CVs.

College of William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA
M.A., History, anticipated January 2019

MA Thesis: "Gender and the American Revolution in the West"
Advisor: Paul Mapp, Professor of History

PhD Students: include dissertation titles and committee members

College of William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA
B.A., History, May 2017

Certificate, Early American History, Material Culture, and Museum Studies, National Institute of American History and Democracy

Study Abroad, University of St. Andrews, Scotland, May-June 2014

Honor's Thesis: "The American Revolution in Virginia"
Advisor: Jim Whittenburg, Professor of History

PUBLICATIONS

"The American Revolution," James Blair Historical Review, Spring 2016

HONORS & AWARDS

Spring Research Grant, Office of Graduate Studies and Research, 2018

Mary Callis Scholarship, Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, 2018

Dean's List, 2014, 2015, 2016

Summer Research Grant, Office of Student Leadership Development, 2016

Study Abroad Scholarship, Reves Center for International Studies, 2014

PUBLIC HISTORY EXPERIENCE

Proctor, Historic Campus, College of William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA, August 2014-May 2017

Historic Trades Intern, Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, Williamsburg, VA, August-December 2015

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Editorial Apprentice, Omohundro Institute of Early American History & Culture, August 2017-present

Resident Program Assistant, Pre-Collegiate Summer Program in Early American History, College of William & Mary, Williamsburg, VA, Summer 2015 & 2016

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- “Gender and the American Revolution in the West,” Graduate Research Symposium, College of William & Mary, March 24, 2018
- “The American Revolution,” Summer Research Showcase, College of William & Mary, October 5, 2016
- “The Renaissance,” Medieval & Renaissance Studies Undergraduate Research Symposium, William & Mary, March 28, 2015

Presentations should not include in-class presentations, only include symposia, conferences, and other special events.

SERVICE

- Student Athlete Advisory Committee, August 2015-present
- Spotswood Society, August 2014-present

LANGUAGES

- Spanish (fluent)
- French (reading proficient)

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Alliance of Museums
- American Historical Association

Other Potential Categories to Include: Research Interests, Activities, Computer Skills or Certifications (if relevant to discipline), Exhibitions (for artists), etc. If you have a lot of varied experience, you can divide them into Editorial Experience, Public History Experience, Teaching Experience, etc., and highlight certain types of experience by placing it first. Avoid 1 entry per experience heading if possible.