

Program begins at 5pm on Thursday, April 16 & concludes at 1pm on Saturday, April 18

REVISED STUDENT PUBLIC HISTORY BOOTCAMP

Made possible with support from The Jessie Ball duPont Fund

William & Mary
Williamsburg, VA

ALL EXPENSES PAID +
A $500 STIPEND

Build your skills & explore strategies with experts for podcasting, oral history, or exhibit creation in the classroom

RUNDDOWN

THURSDAY, 4/16

WELCOME & DINNER

Welcome at Barrett House, followed by “The Power of Public History” with Charles Fulcher at the historic Sir Christopher Wren Building at William & Mary. Dinner at Shields Tavern.

FRIDAY AM, 4/17

PUBLIC HISTORY IN THE K-12 CLASSROOM

Engage with classroom examples and experts from William & Mary and leading museums in Virginia, including a visit to the Williamsburg Bray School. Boxed lunches in historic Colonial Williamsburg.

FRIDAY PM, 4/17

TOOLS OF THE TRADE & VISIT TO THE BRAY SCHOOL

Learn with experts in podcasting, oral history, exhibit creation, and writing for civic engagement in hands-on workshops, including how to support student writing. Dinner at Mellow Mushroom.

SATURDAY, 4/18

IMPLEMENTATION TIPS, LOGISTICS, & ASSESSMENT

Anticipate and plan for practical considerations and classroom management. Develop your project blueprint alone or with others, share over lunch, and discuss next steps.

After the bootcamp, stay connected with the group, dive deeper into the learning via lilyPD, William & Mary’s new online PD platform for teachers, and complete your project plan to earn your $500 stipend!

Spots are limited - register today!

