

D&I Leadership Council

Brian Baines – Mason School of Business

Brian is a 2003 graduate of Christopher Newport University where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Management. He then went on to graduate from Strayer University in 2007 with a Master's of Business Administration with a Human Resources focus.

For the past 16 years, he has been working in Human Resources; starting his career at his Alma Mater Christopher Newport University and then on to help other organizations with their human resources initiatives to include recruitment, retention, employee relations, and diversity and inclusion. Since 2019, he has led the Human Resources function for the Raymond A. Mason School of Business at William & Mary.

In addition, Brian holds a Senior Professional in Human Resources Certification as well as a being a Society of Human Resources Management Senior Certified Professional. He will also soon start the LEAD Peninsula program with the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce.