KUDOS TO YOU!!

John Mattie – “As the sun sets on our 3rd Tag Day, I want to thank you for your enormous help in hanging the banners around campus – I’ve heard from so many people about how good they look and I know it was one more thing on top of everything else you have to do. This does make a real difference in spreading the word about the importance and power of philanthropy to our students, staff, and faculty, so thank you for your help today.”

- Matthew Lambert
VP for University Advancement

Tina Sinclair – “We appreciate all you do every day to make the College the great place that it is for so many people. I appreciate the thoughtful effort and contribution during the search process that brought Chelsey back to the College.”

- Steven Cole
Assoc. Athletics Director

Emiliano Villarín – “On Wednesday, a desk was delivered to Lambert House, but the delivery people didn’t have the right equipment and didn’t have enough muscle to get it upstairs to my office. A frantic call was made to work control. They sent over a couple of men, one of whom was Nano. He quickly took charge and led the rest of them in getting the desk out of the doorway of Lambert and up the stairs that were narrow and had two turns (and small landings). Nano also had to show the professionals how to operate the drawers so they could be removed to make the desk lighter and easier to carry. He literally saved the day for us (Judy Schatzel was with me). He was very nice. I loved that he was smart and a leader. I hope you convey to him how very much we appreciated his assistance and his great attitude. You are very fortunate to have such a great employee!”
