Introduction

• The College of William and Mary makes various payments to students for tuition and fees, research, other education-related activities and employment.

• In awarding and processing such payments, care must be taken to classify these payments correctly for tax purposes and the impact of the Affordable Care Act.

• This document addresses types of payments made to both graduate and undergraduate students, including scholarships, fellowships, stipends, prizes and awards, compensation for services and reimbursements.
To be considered a WM Student you must:

– Be Accepted for Admission
– Students must be enrolled in an approved degree-seeking program
– Enrollment can be full-time or part-time
– Students studying in an approved study abroad program are eligible to apply for financial aid from the College.

<td>Qualified Scholarship/Fellowships</td>
<td>This category includes payments to the student (those in a degree program) or credits to a student’s account used only for “qualified tuition and related expenses,” which are limited to tuition and required fees, books, supplies, or equipment.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Non-Qualified Scholarship / Fellowship</td>
<td>A non-qualified scholarship is a scholarship payment used for expenses that are not qualified tuition or related expenses (e.g. amounts used to pay optional fees, room, board, travel and personal expenses) at the discretion of the student.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>A non-qualified fellowship is payment for a research fellowship. The student will be expected to perform independent research. If the fellow is a student this research would be part of their educational pursuits. It is important to note that the student is performing independently and not under any direct supervision or direction. OR Fellowship is for living support while working either at the educational institution or elsewhere determined by the institution.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Graduate Assistantship</td>
<td>An academic job held by a graduate student, which involves paying for services rendered. Graduate assistantships can be classified as; Graduate Assistantships (GA’s), Teaching Assistantships (TA’s) and Research Assistantships (RA’s). These types of individuals are performing services in order to receive compensation and are subject to the control of and supervised by an employee of the University making the payment taxable and reportable to the IRS.</td>

What happens if I don’t know how to determine the type of payment?

The Tax and Compliance office will help you determine how to pay the student.

Step 1: Review the repository of student payments to find your program and instructions.

Step 2: If your program is NOT listed, send an email to Tax@wm.edu to request review and guidance.

Step 3: Tax office will update the repository with the new programs.
Processing a Student Payment

Before processing a student payment, you must identify the following:

1. What type of payment the students are receiving (use definitions guide)
2. Identify the time period in which the payments applies to the student (during period receiving academic credit, non-enrolled summer, post-graduation, etc.)
3. Recipient tax status (US Citizen vs NRA)

Once you have determined the answer to the 3 outlined questions, you may use the information below to identify the department that will be processing the payment.
Qualified Scholarship / Fellowship

Only WM Students can receive Qualified Scholarships/Fellowships. If applicable, Students will receive a 1098-T - Tuition Statement. The student must be enrolled for classes during the semester(s) for which this money has been awarded. Rule application is the same for US Citizens and NRA students.

Payment is to be made to a student who is enrolled in classes. Is the payment for:

- Qualified Scholarship / Fellowship

If applicable BURSAR reports on 1098-T

Treat as Financial Aid and payment must be processed by FIN AID using the Student Payment Spreadsheet
Non-Qualified Scholarship / Fellowship

Only WM Students may receive Non-Qualified Scholarships/ Fellowships. The student must be enrolled for classes during the semester(s) for which this money has been awarded. Rule application is NOT the same for US Citizens and NRA students.

This is the process for a payment with NO SERVICE component and STUDENT IS ENROLLED.
