Reception in Honor of Veterans Day, 6:30-9 p.m. (Nat'l Museum of the U.S. Army, Fort Belvoir, VA)

You are invited to a special reception showcasing William & Mary's trailblazing work supporting veterans and active-duty members of the U.S. armed forces. Honor our nation's veterans, connect with fellow military, veteran and civil service alumni, students, parents, family and friends, and experience the National Museum of the United States Army.

Our evening will feature remarks from W&M President Katherine A. Rowe, a video highlighting W&M VET's impact and a distinguished panel of student veterans and alumni. Prior to the program, the museum's exhibits will be open from 6:30-7:30 p.m. for attendees. Register here.

Veterans Day - Friday, November 11th

Veterans Day Brunch, 9:30-10:30 a.m. (Sadler Center, The Slice)

The Offices of Student Transition Engagement Programs and Student Veteran Engagement are inviting student-, faculty- and staff-veterans to brunch in the Sadler Center's new Slice area. The Slice is located in the newly renovated side of the main floor, just down the hall from the Office of Student Veteran Engagement (OSVE). We honor your bravery, your sacrifice, and your service!

Veterans Day Bell-Ringing Ceremony, 10:45am (Wren Building)

The ringing of the Wren Bell has become a Veterans Day tradition at William & Mary. On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, a William & Mary student veteran will ring the Wren Bell slowly to commemorate Armistice Day, the original inspiration for Veterans Day. All around the nation, bells will toll in unison at 11 a.m. on Veterans Day, and William & Mary is glad to be among the institutions observing this time-honored tradition.

Raymond A. Mason School of Business Veterans Day Celebration, 12:30-1:30 p.m. (Alan B. Miller Hall (Business School) Brinkley Commons)

The Raymond A. Mason School of Business MBA Program, Center for Military Transition, and Mason Military Association invite you to join us in thanking our military students, faculty, staff, and executive partners for your patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.
