Please Answer the Following Questions:

Is the chapter a duly-recognized social organization?

Is the chapter currently in good standing as a student organization?

Fraternity and Sorority Housing Application

Has the chapter had at least twelve members and pledges each year for the past two years?

Does the chapter have any outstanding debt to W&M?

Do sufficient resources exist to support the goals of the organization?

Does the chapter have evidence of being in strong financial standing?

After the conditional first year, continuance in housing will depend on the ability of the social organization to meet the requirements stated in the Student Handbook, the Fraternity/Sorority Housing Agreement, the guidelines adopted from the Greek Life Task Force Report, and the expectations set forth in the Special Interest Housing Review process.

Please note houses will be offered upon availability and in order of applications that meet all criteria for Fraternity and Sorority Housing. If you have any questions in regards to the process please email living@wm.edu.
