National University of Singapore Exchange

Location: Singapore

Host Institution:
National University of Singapore

Term:
Fall Semester, Spring Semester, or Academic Year

Deadlines:
August 1 for Spring Semester Program
March 15 for Fall Semester or Academic Year Program

Eligibility:
W&M student in good standing
3.0 GPA

Language Requirement:
None

Course Information:
Students may choose from the full university curriculum.

Transfer Credits:
Courses must be pre– or post-approved. Grades will not be posted on transcript or be included in GPA.

Program Costs:
Tuition plus a $75 application fee and $200 off campus fee paid to W&M. Room & board paid directly to the National University of Singapore.

Application:
Applications are available online @ http://studyabroad.wm.edu

The tuition exchange agreement between the College of William and Mary and the National University of Singapore allows William and Mary students to pay their regular tuition to William and Mary while taking classes at NUS. A diverse range of courses is offered at the University through its many faculties, including Business, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Science, Arts, and Social Sciences.

NUS, a competitive and globally-oriented university, strives to be “a key node in the global network of knowledge communities at the forefront of ideas. NUS aspires to be a dynamic community, imbued with a ‘no walls’ culture and a spirit of enterprise, which promotes the free flow of ideas and builds synergies between the processes of creating, imparting and exploiting knowledge.” (from NUS statement of vision)

Singapore is a very diverse city that is Asian at heart. A vibrant cosmopolitan locale, Singapore is filled with museums, shops and boutiques, parks, and theme attractions where you can experience the modern and multicultural face of Asia.