1. This purchase made by William & Mary (hereinafter called “University” or “W&M”), an agency of the Commonwealth of Virginia, is governed in all respects by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and any vendor, supplier, contractor, or firm (as such terms may be used) providing goods or services to the University assures the Commonwealth it is conforming with the provisions found in applicable Virginia law. This purchase is also subject to the provisions of the "Commonwealth of Virginia Purchasing Manual for Institutions of Higher Education and Their Vendors".

2. Sales to the University are normally exempt from State taxes. Invoices resulting from this purchase will be free of Federal excise and transportation taxes.

3. By accepting and performing this order, the supplier agrees that the price(s) include(s) shipping FOB destination unless otherwise stated in the order.

4. Goods delivered or services rendered must be strictly in accordance with the order placed and cannot deviate in any way from the terms, conditions or specifications of this order without the prior written approval of the University. Equipment, materials, or supplies delivered on this order are subject to inspection and test upon receipt. If rejected, goods remain the property of the supplier.

5. The supplier must provide a current Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) on each delivered product containing any substance defined or described by United States Federal Hazard Communication Standard 1910.1200. MSDS’s should be sent to W&M Environment, Health, & Safety Office: Annex 204 South Boundary Street Williamsburg, VA 23187

6. To receive payment, a valid University Purchase Order number must be shown on all invoices and shipments associated with a Purchase Order. The University’s standard payment terms are NET 30, unless otherwise negotiated by the University or University’s banking services provider. The University will compute payment from the date of delivery of goods at destination after final inspection and acceptance, from the date of completion of services or the date the correct invoice is received, whichever is later.

7. If eVA-registered, the supplier agrees, by accepting and performing this order that it is subject to an eVA Transaction Fee based on the face amount of the order, for which the supplier will be invoiced by the Commonwealth of Virginia, Department of General Services. The supplier may not recoup the eVA fee by invoicing the University for the fee. Additional information about eVA is available at http://www.eva.virginia.gov.
8. The University will own all rights, title and interest in any and all intellectual property rights created in the performance from this purchase and the supplier will execute any assignments or other documents needed for the University to perfect such rights, provided that, for research collaboration pursuant to subcontracts under sponsored research agreements administered by the University’s Office of Sponsored Programs, intellectual property rights will be governed by the terms of the grant or contract to the University to the extent such grant or contract requires intellectual property terms to apply to subcontractors.

9. The following provisions apply to a contract made under a federal grant: Appendix II C.F.R. 200 §§ 200.317-200.326

10. Sensitive, non-public University Data is strictly regulated by state or federal law. Such data includes but is not limited to: business, administrative and financial data, intellectual property, and student and personnel data. If the supplier providing goods or services to the University will receive, create, or come into non-incidental contact with University Data, the supplier agrees to abide by the terms and conditions of university guidelines.

11. Brand Standards: Any Creative Work produced for the University (1) will comply with the University’s brand standards and (2) in its end application, will fit the visual look and feel of the overall brand aesthetic, brand concept, color palette, visual effects, photographic and video style standards, and make correct use of all marks including logos and identity components. The University, in its sole discretion, will determine compliance with these requirements. Creative Work includes, but is not limited to: websites, applications, electronic communications, newsletters, advertisements, mailings, magazines, and other communication materials (digital and print) produced for the University. For additional guidance, the supplier should consult the W&M website: https://brand.wm.edu/

12. Except as provided below, once an order is issued, all related solicitation documents submitted to the University, including, but not limited to, quotations, proposals, bids, statements of work, and/or specifications, will be open to the inspection of any citizen, or any interested person, firm or corporation, in accordance with the Virginia Freedom of Information Act. Trade secrets or confidential information submitted by the supplier as part of its solicitation documents will not be subject to public disclosure if exempted by the Virginia Freedom of Information Act; however, the supplier must invoke the protections of this section prior to or upon submission of its solicitation documents, and must identify the specific data or other materials to be protected and state the reasons why protection is necessary. The supplier may not request that its solicitation documents in their entirety be treated as trade secret or confidential information, nor may a firm request that its pricing be treated as a trade secret or confidential information.

13. This order is the entire agreement between the University (including University employees and other End Users) and the supplier, including William & Mary Mandatory Terms & Conditions. In the event that the supplier enters into terms of use agreements or other agreements or understanding, whether electronic, click-through, verbal or in writing, with University employees or other End Users, such agreements shall be null, void and without effect, and the terms of this order shall apply.

15. NONVISUAL ACCESS TO TECHNOLOGY: All information technology which, pursuant to this agreement, is purchased or upgraded by or for the use of any State agency or institution or political subdivision of the Commonwealth (the “Technology”) shall comply with the following nonvisual access standards from the date of purchase or upgrade until the expiration of this agreement:

i) effective, interactive control and use of the Technology shall be readily achievable by nonvisual means;

ii) the Technology equipped for nonvisual access shall be compatible with information technology used by other individuals with whom any blind or visually impaired user of the technology interacts;

iii) Nonvisual Access Technology shall be integrated into any networks used to share communications among employees, program participants or the public;

iv) and the Technology for nonvisual access shall have the capability of providing equivalent access by nonvisual means to telecommunications or other interconnected network services used by persons who are not blind or visually impaired.

Compliance with the foregoing nonvisual access standards shall not be required if the designated representative of the using agency, institution or political subdivision determines that (i) the Technology is not available with nonvisual access because the essential elements of the Technology are visual and (ii) nonvisual equivalence is not available.

Installation of hardware, software or peripheral devices used for nonvisual access is not required when the Technology is being used exclusively by individuals who are not blind or visually impaired, but applications programs and underlying operating systems (including the format of the data) used for the manipulation and presentation of information shall permit the installation and effective use of nonvisual access software and peripheral devices.

If requested, the Contractor must provide a detailed explanation of how compliance with the foregoing nonvisual access standards is achieved and a validation of concept demonstration.

The requirements of this Paragraph shall be construed to achieve full compliance with the Information Technology Access Act, §§ 2.2-3500 through 2.2-3504 of the Code of Virginia.

Revised 8.4.22
PURCHASE ORDER TERMS & CONDITIONS

All information technology which, pursuant to this Agreement, is purchased or upgraded by or for the use of any Commonwealth agency or institution or political subdivision of the Commonwealth (the “Technology”) shall comply with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act (29 U.S.C. 794d), as amended. If requested, the Contractor must provide a detailed explanation of how compliance with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act is achieved and a validation of concept demonstration. The requirements of this Paragraph along with the Non-Visual Access to Technology Clause shall be construed to achieve full compliance with the Information Technology Access Act, §§2.2-3500 through 2.2-3504 of the Code of Virginia.

16. If the agreed upon compensation for this Agreement exceeds $10,000, the provisions required by §10 Rules Governing Procurement Chapter 4.10 (§23-38.88 et seq.) of Title 23 of the Code of Virginia prohibiting Contractor from discriminating in employment and Governing Rules §11 obligating Contractor to provide a drug-free workplace.

17. FORCE MAJEURE. In no event shall either party be liable to the other for cancellation or postponement or deemed in breach of the Agreement (or PO if using Purchase Order) based on circumstances resulting from any cause beyond either parties control including, but not limited to, federal or state governmental orders or lack thereof, legislation, regulations, labor strikes, epidemic, pandemic, immediate threat of mass casualties or contagious illness or disease, act of war, riot, mass shooting, terrorism, acts of God, fires, severe weather conditions, floods, curtailment of transportation, electrical failure or any event that prohibits attendees being able to attend the event. Parties agree to minimize the damage of the Force Majeure Event to fullest extent possible. Notices shall state the nature of the Force Majeure Event, actions the party wishes to take, and if applicable a plan to mitigate any delays caused by the event. Such Notice shall not subject either party to any penalties, liquidated damages, or forfeiture of any prepayment. All deposits being held will be promptly refunded for the entire amount received from either party.
