

VETERAN CAREER ACCELERATOR PROGRAM

William & Mary's Veteran-to-Executive Transition Certificate program – the Veteran Career Accelerator Program (VCAP) – stresses physical and mental wellness, builds key business and leadership skills, and provides key insights into corporate culture.

Our groundbreaking transition program trains veterans, transitioning service members, and military spouses to perform with high degrees of productivity, fulfillment, and resilience as they transition to civilian management positions, while flourishing in their careers and personal lives.

DATES: July 18-19, 2025

FORMAT: 2-day intensive, in-person seminar, followed by 3-months of weekly virtual transition seminars and 1:1 follow-on services.

CERTIFICATE FEE: $750
(with scholarship/financial aid opportunities available)

LOCATION: The residential portion of the course will meet on the historic campus of William & Mary's Raymond A. Mason School of Business in Williamsburg, VA.

Housing, parking, course materials, program events, and some meals are included.

Participants also receive career services support and exclusive invitations to Center for Military Transition alumni and career development events.

The program will enroll approximately 25 transitioning veterans, military spouses, and/or members of the intelligence community.

Engaging William & Mary's #1 MBA faculty and subject-matter experts from the Center for Mindfulness and Authentic Excellence, the 2-day residential program - followed by a series of virtual information sessions and 1:1 career transition support - is designed to be a transformational experience. By the completion of the program, participants will see the world and themselves in a new and better way - a way that will provide them with the skills and knowledge to flourish in a new chapter of service.

VCAP provides transition support the RIGHT way. It emphasizes leadership, context, and executive presence in a comprehensive approach to military-to-civilian transitions centered on the individual participant while producing broad impacts.

Our unique, curriculum leverages strengths across William & Mary's campus and subject matter expertise. VCAP emphasizes physical and mental wellness, develops introspective insights into corporate culture, and builds business skills critical to flourishing in executive leadership and other positions.

This hands-on program will hone the business skills needed to flourish in your craft, leadership, and career.
