

Plumeri Award for Athletics Leadership Excellence Selection and Announcement Process

The Plumeri Awards recognize and reward outstanding coaches and staff whose core virtues and accomplishments help to define excellence in intercollegiate athletics at William & Mary.

Award nominees will be evaluated on their accomplishments and contributions to student-athlete and/or departmental success in a variety of areas. Evidence of excellence in these areas may include athletic performance, academic achievement, professional recognition, and/or service to the community or organization. The Plumeri Award celebrates passion, vision, and leadership; successful applicants will be engaged citizens of the university community and dedicated stewards of our core values.

Selection

A committee will review completed applications and recommend the strongest candidates as finalists to the Provost. Interviews will be conducted with finalists to assist the Provost in making the ultimate selection.
