

Applied Research Center Student Newsletter

SensorsGOV Conference

September 13-15, 2004

Doubletree Hotel, Va. Beach, VA.

Dee Dee Hopkins, Olga Trofimova, and Amy Wilkerson appear in front of their display at the first annual SensorsGOV expo and conference

The first Annual GovSensors Conference was held in Va. Beach at the Doubletree Hotel. Amy, Dee Dee and Olga represented the ARC at our booth. Among the distinguished speakers at the conference was Admiral James Loy, Deputy Secretary, Department of Homeland Security.

Lab Tour September 17, 2004

SURA President Jerry Draayer Visits ARC W&M Lab

Amy Wilkerson and Natalie Pearcy speak about the ToF-SIMS to Christoff Leeman and Jerry Draayer, Sura President.

Amy is pictured here with Christoff Leeman, Bernadette Kulas, and three colleagues who accompanied Jerry Draayer.

Editors: Kelly Sullivan and Amy Wilkerson
Photographer: Olga Trofimova

Lab Tour September 22, 2004

Virginia Delegate Phil Hamilton Visits ARC W&M Lab

Shannon Watson talks about her work using the Atomic Force Microscope. Pictured here are Jlab Director Christoff Leeman, Delegate Hamilton, and Jlab Chief Scientist Tony Thomas.

Dee Dee Hopkins explains the ToF-SIMS to Delegate Hamilton and Tony Thomas. Also pictured is Amy Wilkerson.

Lab Tour September 19, 2004

Irina Semenova, University of Kent, Texas, visited the ARC lab. She is currently working at Jlab

Pictured here is Irina Semenova and Shameika Vick, of NSU. Shameika is explaining the uses of the AFM to Irina.

Lab Tour September 24, 2004

Morgan Evans, Product Manager for Vaian Semiconductor Equipment Associates of Gloucester, MA. came to visit the ARC labs.

Ming Yao Zhu explains her plasma system to Morgan Evans

Working in the Lab This Month

Amy Wilkerson is assisting Jlab's Tim Siggins who needed the use of the Dektak Surface Profiler for his sample